WILL LAUNCH THURSDAY GAME

Cpl. Jasper Wayne Boggan, Jr., a West Monroe marine who fought in several major battles in Korea, will launch the Monroe Sports' first baseball game of 1951 season Tuesday. He has been selected to throw the ball to the players at 8 p.m., getting the game underway for local baseball enthusiasts.

Vet To Throw First Ball In Season Opener Tuesday

A marine veteran of the Korean war will throw a ball onto the playing field at Legion Memorial stadium at 8 p.m. Tuesday and start the 1951 baseball season for the local Monroe Sports. The day has been proclaimed as "baseball day" by Mayor John Coon.

The marine—Cpl. Jasper Wayne Boggan, Jr., of West Monroe—was in the initial landings at Inchon, and was with the forces capturing Kimpo airfield and the South Korean capital of Seoul. He suffered frostbite in the retreat to Hamhung. From there was flown to the United States for treatment.

Corporal Boggan is married to a senior at Ouachita Parish high school. Jasper Boggan, Sr., the corporal's father, lives on the Whites Ferry road, West Monroe.

In a proclamation, Mayor Coon proclaimed Tuesday as "baseball day" because "the Monroe Sports baseball team is to officially open the regular playing season of the Cotton States League," and since this is "the 50th anniversary of the National Association of Professional Baseball League, and the 50th anniversary of the Monroe Sports."

'Old Timers' To Host 'Youngsters'

Veterans of World War II—the "Old Timers"—will take charge of the monthly meeting of the L. B. Faulk post of the American Legion at 8 p.m. Monday night. It will be the second of the now-established "Old Timers' nights," the first having been held three months ago.

The "Old Timers" will entertain the "Youngsters"—veterans of World War II—and all younger vets are urged to attend. A buffet supper and refreshments will be served and an interesting program will be presented.

A number of "Old Timers" already have registered for the event and will bear the cost of the meeting. An unusually large crowd of veterans of both wars is expected to attend.

S. C. "Squency" Nettles was elected "granddad" of the "Old Timers" at the first meeting and a new "granddad" will be named

POLICE JURORS TO CONVENTION HERE

Long, Dodd Speech Double Header Scheduled For Next Friday

Gov. Earl K. Long and Lt. Gov. William J. Dodd are both scheduled to address delegates at the Louisiana Police Jury's annual convention here Friday.

The convention opens in Monroe Wednesday with the registration of delegates and guests in the lobby of the Virginia Hotel. It is the second time both the governor and lieutenant governor have addressed conventions here within three weeks.

Despite their differences both are scheduled to address the group at 9:30 a. m. Friday.

Denies Knowledge Of Impeachment

North Attleboro, Mass., April 14. —(AP)—Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., (R-Mass.) said today he knew nothing about reported plans to begin impeachment proceedings against the president after General MacArthur's address before a joint congressional session.

"I don't know a thing about any such plan," Martin declared at a news conference.

The reporter rephrased the question to say "Is it true that as soon as the general's speech is ended impeachment proceedings will begin?"

Martin's answer: "Not that I know of."

M'ARTHUR TO GET HERO'S WELCOME

President 'Would Be Happy' To See General Honored In Washington

Washington, April 14. —(AP)—A full-scale homecoming celebration for General MacArthur here next week was approved today by the District of Columbia commissioners.

Assurance from President Truman that he "would be happy" to see the general honored as a returning military hero served as a go-ahead for the commissioners to approve a formal invitation to MacArthur. They had been non-committal before.

The plans also received the support of a special committee of citizens. The committee, called to meet by the board of trade to make plans for a reception, received the last-minute sponsorship of the district government.

Commissioner John Russell Young said he felt sure that despite "the short notice" the committee would be able "to work up something fine for Gen. MacArthur."

Commissioner F. Joseph Donohue told the group he was "happy now that the graciousness of the president made it possible for the district government to be equally gracious."

Joseph C. McGarraghy, named by Commissioner Young as chairman of the celebration committee, predicted that the greatest crowds in the history of the city would be on hand to greet the returning general.

There was still no word of military participation in the welcome but representatives of veterans' organizations attended the meeting to pledge their support.

Officials said the question of an official banquet must await definite word on MacArthur's schedule.

'M'ARTHUR DAY' SCHEDULED HERE

Local Groups Plan To Celebrate Famed General's Arrival In U. S.

Tuesday will be "MacArthur Day" in the Twin Cities if hastily devised plans of a group of civic leaders materialize.

Leaders in the plan asked that their names not be divulged because no one group is to be identified as sponsor of the observance.

Mayors of Monroe and West Monroe will be asked to declare Tuesday as "MacArthur Day," and it is hoped that all church bells will ring and prayers be said at the moment General MacArthur sets foot on American soil on his trip from Japan.

A meeting has been called for 10:30 a. m. Monday in the name of the Virginia Hotel to perfect plans. All ministers, city officials, heads of civic clubs and other interested citizens are urged to attend.

The observance is designed to pay tribute to General MacArthur for the "magnificent job he has done in the Far East," it was said.

"There is no politics involved," one spokesman said, "and those to whom the plan has been broached are enthusiastically in favor of it. Many persons, who have learned that similar observances will be held elsewhere throughout the nation, have urged that the Twin Cities join in paying homage to a great general."

General MacArthur is scheduled to land in San Francisco early Tuesday afternoon. The time of his arrival will be flashed across the nation and then the actual ceremonies will be held in many cities, towns and villages, it was said.

Popular Former British Foreign Secretary Is Among Britain's Great

London, April 14. —(AP)—Ernest Bevin died in his apartment of a heart attack today, a little over a month after giving up his post as Britain's foreign secretary. He was 70.

The tough-spoken former laborer and union boss, who mobilized Britain's workers to beat Hitler and as sharply challenged Stalin in the cold war, recently was praised by Winston Churchill as "among the great foreign secretaries of our country."

For almost 11 years, with the exception of a brief period toward the end of the war, he had been

DEALER HELD

Alleged Biggest Wholesale Dope Peddler In Orleans Area Nabbed

New Orleans, April 14. —(AP)—Police here are holding a man described as the biggest wholesale narcotics dealer in New Orleans on a charge of possession of narcotics.

The man was arrested late yesterday during a raid. Arresting officers said they seized narcotics which would bring $75,000 on the illicit retail market.

The man was identified by third precinct police as John Vaccaro, 42, of New Orleans. Sgt. Peter Gervais, head of the narcotics detail, said Vaccaro was the biggest wholesale dope dealer in the area.

Two other men were arrested in the raid.

POSSE CATCHES ACCUSED KILLER

Negro Wanted In Constable's Death Nabbed After 31-Hour Search

Prentiss, Miss., April 14. —(AP)—A Negro wanted for killing a constable was arrested without resistance near here tonight after a 31-hour search by 250 possemen.

The prisoner, 24-year-old James V. Durr, was taken to an unannounced jail.

The fugitive was unarmed, except for a pocketknife in his pocket, when state highway patrolmen flushed him in a wooded area. The capture was made in a Negro community, Hominy, about 20 miles from where Constable Bernice Herring was killed and his brother, Eugene, wounded when the constable tried to serve the Negro with a legal paper seizing a wagon on which Durr owed $25. The shooting occurred near Magee, yesterday.

Other members of the posse, which reached a maximum strength of 250, did not know of the capture until the Negro had been taken 30 miles from the scene of the capture.

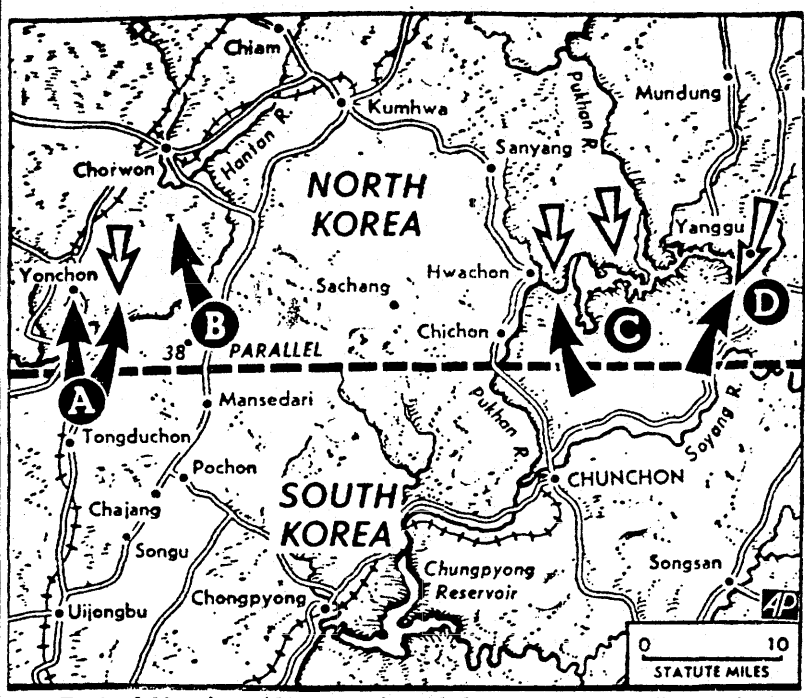

Patrol headquarters did not give details of the capture, except to say that they found the fugitive on a tip.

Possemen had combed on foot an area of about 225 square miles in rolling country, they were aided by three bloodhounds. Durr, a stocky man with a gate, had taken refuge in the wooded area of Hominy where he was born and reared and knew the terrain. Prentiss is in south central Mississippi.

Among the possemen were three of the constable's sons: Herbert, Cecil and Kelly Herring. Their younger brother, Ted, 12, was left

FLAME THROWERS SMOKE OUT REDS

East of Yonchon (A), American infantrymen used flame throwers Friday to smoke Reds out of their pillboxes. An infantry team lead by tanks entered Yonchon, but found no Communists and withdrew. On the western front, U. N. troops (B) crossed the Hantan River and advanced without opposition. On the central front (C), Red resistance fell off in the Hwachon area. Southwest of Yangu (D), on the east-central front, the Communists put up a fierce battle. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Truman Says Nation In 'Deadly Danger'

Washington, April 14. —(AP)—President Truman tonight denied any plan to appease communism, and hotly accused his critics of spreading "political hokum" while the nation is in "deadly danger."

In an embattled speech to assembled Democrats at a $100-a-plate Jefferson-Jackson day dinner, Mr. Truman declared foes of his foreign policy are sowing confusion because "they think if the country is confused enough, they may be able to win the next election."

Not once during the speech did he refer to General Douglas MacArthur, whom he deposed as Far East commander for advocating stronger measures against the Chinese Reds than administration policy calls for.

But he laid down an offensive barrage in advance of the speech the general is slated to make, probably late next week, before a joint session of senate and house. He lashed out at critics, in congress and elsewhere, who have been assailing his foreign policy for months and who mostly support MacArthur as against the administration.

Senator Taft of Ohio, Senator Wherry of Nebraska and Representative Martin of Massachusetts, all Republican leaders, have been in the forefront of attacks against the president, particularly for his refusal to permit MacArthur to bomb Red Chinese installations in Manchuria and to use Chinese Nationalist troops to attack the Chinese mainland.

To their charge that the administration is seeking an appeasement deal with the Chinese Reds, Mr. Truman declared: "We will not engage in appeasement."

SURPRISE ENEMY

Three-Pronged Drive Closes In Around Chorwon In West

By Don Huth Tokyo, Sunday, April 15. —(AP)—Allied troops surprised the Reds in central Korea today with a spectacular pre-dawn attack which won high ground at the eastern end of Hwachon reservoir.

Flares dropped by navy and air force planes lighted the way for an advance to within rifle range of Yangu, seven miles north of the 38th parallel.

United Nations forces controlled most of the reservoir's south shore but still were thwarted in efforts to capture the 275-foot-high dam near Hwachon at the west end.

In west-central Korea, other Allied forces deepened a three-pronged wedge aimed at Chorwon, 17 miles north of 38. A field dispatch said enemy resistance was heavy.

The enemy also was putting up a fight around Hwachon reservoir in central Korea and counterattacked near Inje, 10 miles southeast of Yangu.

Red artillery and mortars fired more than 200 rounds last night at the advancing Allies from positions north of the reservoir. AP Correspondent Tonia Bradshaw was permitted by censors to disclose that American troops tried recently to cross Hwachon reservoir in small boats and seize the dam but were driven off.

The reservoir was the prime power source of hydroelectric power for Seoul and other parts of South Korea.

On the west coast, far behind enemy lines, 200 heavily armed South Korean marines aided by friendly guerrillas had gained almost complete control of the lightly defended Ongjin peninsula. They seized positions within 17 miles southwest of Chinnampo, Yellow sea port for the Communist capital of Pyongyang.

Some 500 sympathetic civilians were freed, after the Korean

Charm Schools Revamp Girls Who Work For Government

By Arthur Edson Washington, April 14. —(AP)—This town is filled with thousands of girls who come here to work for the government. They come from all over—from Meddybemps, Me., to Dinkey Creek, Calif.

And what happens to them once they get here?

They become "lost, frightened, bored, pretty sad, frustrated."

This gloomy description of a government girl's fate comes from Phyllis Bell, who runs a charm school here.

She tries to cram some ideas and some proper food into their interiors, and to remodel their exteriors. At so much a charm, of course. The exact charge is a secret. Miss Bell says she has to see the girl before she can put a price tag on charm.

Local charm schools got into the news recently as part of the backwash of the RFC hearings. The senate banking committee questioned Rex Jacobs, a Detroit manufacturer. It came out that shortly before her marriage, Mrs. Jacobs ran a charm school here.

Well, the committee decided charm schools had nothing to do with its hearing, and let the idea drop. Which is too bad, for charm schools appear to be a rather effective if unusual method of education.

Miss Bell, whose school is not connected with the one which was

Gen. Ridgway: Unknown Is World Figure In 100 Days

U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters, Korea, April 14. —(AP)—A strapping 6-foot officer ripped a hand grenade from his shoulder harness today and flew off to Tokyo for one of the most challenging jobs in the world: Successor to the soldier-statesman General MacArthur.

Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway left Korea with a minimum of furlow. In a three-minute ceremony he handed over his Eighth army command to Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, bade his staff goodbye, and boarded his waiting Constellation.

One fighting chapter had ended and another had begun for the new supreme commander, Allied powers.

At the age of 56, Ridgway had risen meteorically in little more than 100 days from a virtual unknown to a world figure.

The portents dispute between President Truman and General

MacArthur on U. S. military-political strategy in Asia had catapulted him into a "four-hat" administrative command. Besides being "SCAP," he now was commander-in-chief, United Nations command; commander-in-chief, Far East; and commanding general, U. S. Army, Far East.

No longer would he have need for the dangling grenade that had so swiftly become the symbol of his rare combination of frontline daring and caution.

Perhaps the first person to appreciate the magnitude of the job ahead of Ridgway was his mother.

"It places him in a very difficult position," said Mrs. Ruth Ridgway when she first received news of her son's appointment this week at her San Diego, home.

"I'm very sorry it had to happen this way. He's been such an admirer of MacArthur."

Her son, however, was used to difficult military positions. He took his greater burdens in stride.

TECH STUDENTS TO CAST VOTES

Will Ballot On Tuesday For Student Body Offices To Be Filled

Ruston, April 14.—(Special)—Run-off elections for several offices of the Student Body association at Louisiana Tech will be held in Howard auditorium on Tuesday, April 17.

Luther Moore of Minden became president of the student body with no opposition in the election held here this week. Also, with no opposition, was Nancy Shehee of Arcadia, who will be secretary next year.

Ray Talley, Ruston, defeated Roy D. Evans, Shreveport, in the race for first vice-president. Talley received 461 votes and Evans 241.

Betty Bennett, West Monroe, and Travis Shaffer, Athens, won the senior representative race with 361 and 354 votes, respectively. Warren Williams, Tallulah, was close behind with 308 votes. Wayne Jordan received 218 votes.

Betty Lou Moore, Minden, won in the junior representative race with 392 votes. There will be a run-off between Barbara Burkett, Shreveport, and Ed Maxwell, Delhi, who had 356 and 353 votes respectively. Alice Marie Walker, Shreveport, received 132 votes.

There will be a run-off between Janet Littlefield, Hodge, and Billie Lowe, Haynesville, for second vice-president. Miss Littlefield received 285 votes and Miss Lowe 309.

In the election for treasurer, Drew Dobbins, Athens, received 329 votes while Jimmy Kilpatrick, Haynesville, received 299 votes, making it necessary for a run-off.

George Tereshkovich, New York, N.Y., had 78 votes.

There will be four candidates in the run-off for sophomore representative. They will be Betty Maricella, Monroe, with 277 votes;

Charles Worley, Shreveport, 169; Carolyn McCormick, Shreveport, 128; and Jack Pope, Springhill, 127.

Other candidates for this office received the following votes: George Alleman, Shreveport, 75; Jack McColister, Shreveport, 115; Mavis Mallory Athens, 77; Claire Nattin, Homer, 78; Bill Smith, Monroe, 125; Maxine Tubbs, Ruston, 49; and Ralph Watson, Mansfield, 69.

UMT Opponents Trifle With Safety of Nation

The universal military training program, already approved in the senate, got such a bad kicking around in the house, that house military affairs leaders gave up their fight to write UMT into law at this time.

Opponents of the proposal, pushed into the background when things weren't going so well, have come bursting forth again with a display of politics as usual. Chairman Vinson of the house armed services committee watered down the program in hope of saving it, but he was forced to support amendments under which congress would commit itself now merely to consider "legislative recommendations" to be made later by a special UMT commission.

If the Reds were knocking at the gates of Pusan, there would be little trouble gaining approval of UMT or anything else the military said was necessary. But because we presently hold the initiative in Korea and the Russians are making no other menacing gestures, the anti-UMT forces find it more comfortable to listen to the protesting voices from home.

This is no way to make laws. The nation's legislators have a solemn duty to weigh soberly all the factors that bear upon the domestic and foreign issues they must resolve. They have an obligation to take the long view, to look beyond the ebb and flow of transitory events, to recognize that a battle is not a war.

The reasons for UMT are valid whether we're in Pyongyang or struggling to hold Pusan. They're good whether Russia is making warlike moves toward Yugoslavia and Iran, or sitting on her hands.

To blow hot and cold for adequate defense in unison with advance and retreat in Korea or anywhere else is foolhardy, immature and irresponsible. No citizen can feel too confident about resting his fate in the hands of a lawmaker who tells the defense department in January that it isn't asking enough and then two months later—with the basic situation unchanged—declares it is asking too much.

Many men on Capitol Hill like to complain that the administration is a "crisis" government—that it likes to manufacture crises when none exist, in order to get things jammed through congress.

It may well be that the administration has on occasion done just that. But a good many legislators certainly have encouraged this tendency, since they decline to look beyond the ends of their noses unless they see immediate and overwhelming danger confronting the country.

The brutal truth is that some of them have to hit over the head with the threat of national destruction before they will act as statesmen rather than as errand boys for the home folks.

Russia is every whit as much our enemy today as two months ago or ten months ago. She will take utmost advantage of every weakness, every faltering stride in America. She will respect only strength.

Our military leaders believe UMT is a vital element in U. S. strength. The days when a nation could rely on a hastily-trained amateur army to keep it secure are gone. Today's weapons and tactics demand professional soldiers, thoroughly trained. To be safe we must have a large reserve pool of such skilled military manpower. MT is designed to provide it. Nothing else will.

The men who stand up in the house and say there is no need for UMT do not know what has happened to the nature of warfare in the last decade. Or if they know, they refuse to face it. They are toying with the safety of the United States.

Unkindest Cut

A house appropriations subcommittee has voted to slash away 90 per cent of the $97,500,000 sought by the administration for the Voice of America. To enforce this cut would be to cripple the Voice almost hopelessly.

The group said it took the action because it did not like the way the Voice program had been run. Its decision amounts to saying that there should be no program left to run.

All our experts are agreed that if anything was done to expand and improve foreign propaganda program. How it should be set up and operated is properly the function of congress to decide.

The President's Speech—and the Truth.

False and misleading statements are shunned in the commercial world. In the diplomatic world, however, they are exalted as State Papers. . . . The President gave his grounds for firing MacArthur at 10:30 Wednesday night, but the real reasons and the real cause had been printed that very morning on the front page of the N. Y. Times.

This is the dispatch: N. Y. Times: Page 1, Washington: "Britain has suggested to the United States that Communist China be brought into the negotiations for a Japanese Peace Treaty . . . and, further, that the Treaty provide for the ultimate if not immediate return of Formosa to China." By China, the British mean the regime of Mao Tse-tung, (Communist). . . . In short, Sec. Acheson's commitments to London call not only for the sellout of Formosa, but Japan also.

Said Mr. Truman: "If history has taught us anything, it is that aggression anywhere in the world is a threat to peace anywhere in the world. And since World War 2, we have been putting the lesson into practice—we're working with the free nations to check the designs of the Soviet Union. That is what we did in Greece."

The actual records show that since World War 2, the President has earned the title of the greatest appeaser in history. . . . "This is what we did in Greece," is not what Mr. Truman did in Czechoslovakia, Poland and eleven other countries. . . . He surrendered them. He didn't intend to oppose Communist Imperialism. If he did, why did he, as recently as one year ago, pigeonhole the 70 group air force, mothball the fleet, and then tell the American people that "peace" was near? . . . The news is that until very recently History hadn't as yet taught President Truman the simple fundamental that you can't appease a dictator.

"The attack in Korea was part of a greater plan to conquer all of Asia," said the President.

This is the very same man who called it a "police action" only eight bloody months ago. . . . "I would like to read to you from a secret Intelligence Report which came after the attack," continued the President. . . . It is apparent that for a considerable time the Intelligence Report after events happen, such as the Bogota riots, an Intelligence Report, after an event, isn't an Intelligence Report at all. It is an alibi. . . . Obviously, if the Intelligence Report had been effective, President Truman would have had more troops ready to meet the attack. The so-called Intelligence Report had already been confirmed by thousands of American corpses. . . . If the President really wanted the people to read an intelligence report, he would release the Wedemeyer Report to the public. . . . That would be the day!

Said the President: "The whole Communist Imperialism is back of the attack on peace in the Far East. It was the Soviet Union that trained and equipped the North Koreans for aggression." . . . But the president failed to mention that the Russians were sold jets by Great Britain. That the Soviet Army rolls on British rubber, and the Soviet soldier sleeps in an English woolen blanket. . . . The President did not say that the chief source of Red China's supply was not Moscow, but Hong Kong and Singapore. That would interfere with peaceful international relations, as the truth often does.

"The question we have had to face," continued the President, "is whether the Communist plan of conquest can be stopped without a general war." . . . The President apparently forgot his Sec'y of Defense George Marshall had, within the last month, told the American people they were already in a global war and fighting for their lives.

"We have taught the enemy a lesson," intoned the President. "He has found out that aggression is not cheap or easy." . . . The truth is, however, and the records show, that the enemy seized eleven countries while Mr. Truman was busy disarming our country on an "edonomy" basis. . . . The "enemy" took eleven countries without firing a single shot, and without loss of a single Russian soldier. . . . That's an easy bargain, as the Gold Star mothers of Korea would be happy to testify.

"The Communist side must now choose its course of action," said the President. . . . This, in diplomatic language, is a frank admission that the President has surrendered the initiative. . . . It is not a United Nations or an American program that is to be decisive. In short, what happens next is Stalin's choice. . . . This is great policy for Marshal Stalin—especially to tell him so.

"Why don't we assist the Chinese Nationalist troops to land on the mainland of China?" asked the president. . . . Answering it, he said that we would be running a very grave risk of starting a general war. But the truth is the Chinese Nationalists and the Chinese Reds fought a full-scale war

In Washington With BASCOM TIMMONS

Television watchers who heard several evasive characters refuse to answer questions in the Kefauver crime investigation, were baffled by the routine chant of "I refuse to answer on the grounds that it might tend to incriminate me," repeated numerous times by individuals of whom some came around a day or so later ready to talk.

"Why didn't they speak up in the first place?" asked puzzled television viewers. They also wanted to know why witnesses made that routine reply when they knew that others who refused to talk had been cited for contempt of the senate, which leads to presentation of the case to a grand jury and possible conviction and jail sentence.

The same thing has happened many times over the last quarter century, and citizens as prominent as Harry L. Sinclair, the oil magnate have served terms in the local jail just for keeping silent at a senate hearing. A secretary of the American Bar Association served time because he refused to give up certain records of that organization, which was considered to be contempt of the senate in a complicated case where the records bore on an investigation then in progress, and the A. B. A. insisted they were confidential.

Then there are the "distinguished" film writers, each ranking high in his field, who were given one year sentences because they refused to tell a joint congressional committee whether they were Communists.

The Kefauver committee procedure followed one of the great traditions of American jurisprudence, dating back to December 15, 1791 when the first ten amendments to the Constitution, usually called the Bill of Rights, became effective. This charter of human liberties says that "no person shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself," which in the case of a congressional investigation means he can't be forced to give any testimony which might subject him to prosecution.

Folks who don't get around to courts or congressional investigations wanted to know how such a high minded rule of our fundamental law could be invoked by the obviously scurvy characters whom they were looking at on television. Of course, the courts have considered similar objections for generations and haven't yet worked out a completely satisfactory solution.

To prevent the sort of people who simply want to evade answers from using the 5th amendment to the Constitution as their defense, a provision has long been established that there must be real substance to such a defense—that the statement which became a monotonous before the Kefauver committee must be factually true, and that can only be determined by a court. Neither the Kefauver committee nor any other congressional committee can put anybody in jail for refusal to answer questions, but it can certainly start

In China for three years out of the last five, and not one American boy was involved. It was the State Dept., under Acheson, which pulled the rug from under the Chinese Nationalists, thus freeing the Chinese Red forces to attack Korea.

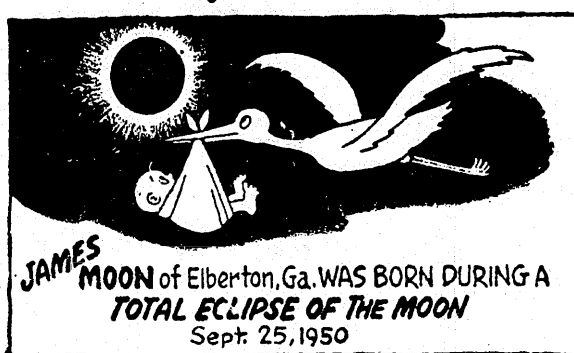

Furthermore, the President and Dean Acheson had reason to know exactly what was going to happen when they killed organized resistance to the Chinese Reds in China. General Wedemeyer told them in a report, years ago, which they do not dare make public. . . . General Wedemeyer's report completely belies—more than refutes—Dean Acheson's subsequently printed White Paper on China. . . . Members of President Truman's own Cabinet have privately called Dean Acheson's White Paper on China the greatest fraud ever attempted on the American people.

Said the President: "Behind the North Koreans and Chinese Communists stand millions of Chinese soldiers. And behind the Chinese soldiers stand the tanks, the planes, the submarines, the soldiers and the scheming rulers of the Soviet Union." . . . But this isn't what the President said last June. At that time he called it a mere "police action." The President failed to tell the American people what he was doing while the Communist strength, which he now admits, was being built up. . . . President Truman's administration was busy selling war factories, mothballing the fleet and disbanding the army. . . . As a matter of fact, within the last month, his own Democratic senators proved that, ex-convict John Maragon, armed with a White House letter from Governor Vaughan, was selling the very U. S. arms the president now says we must build up.

Said the President of Gen. MacArthur: "It was with deepest personal regret that I found myself compelled to take this action. General MacArthur is one of our greatest military commanders. But the cause of World Peace is more important than any individual." . . . The Daily Worker, in much more abusive language, heartily agrees with President Truman in calling Gen. MacArthur a danger to world peace. . . . Today's headlines in the Daily Worker hail President Truman—and say that no greater blow has ever been struck for their cause. For once, the Daily Worker is right.

Frank Farrell New York Day By Day

New York—The inside story on ailing playwright Eugene O'Neill's recent "fall" is that he was pushed down a whole flight of stairs by his wife. The winner of three Pulitzer prizes and one Nobel prize, who had been suffering from Parkinson's disease, was subsequently moved to Doctors Hospital in New York. Mrs. Carlotta Monterey O'Neill his former actress third wife was removed from their Salem home to a Boston hospital. Two weeks ago Mrs. O'Neill filed suit for separate maintenance alleging her mate was "cruel and abusive."

Around and About—Mike DiSalle handles plenty of big Washington deals every day but the director of price stabilization was unable to get a Naples-bound S. S. Saturna cabin for a cousin, George Peck, of the N. Y. Telephone Co. finally swung the deal. . . . Actress Marion Carter observed: "Now that television is considered great because it brings stars into your parlor how about some of those good old-fashioned windows that let in the sun?" . . . George Solotareff, the ticket tycoon, finally returned from Miami Beach, and he's been telling his favorite guys and dolls: "This winter I remained in Florida for eight changes of shows in Copia City." . . . Bulgy Kaye Ballard who sang in London's "Touch and Go" is home with a new title from the Royal Navy's finance division. She's their "girl with the most assets."

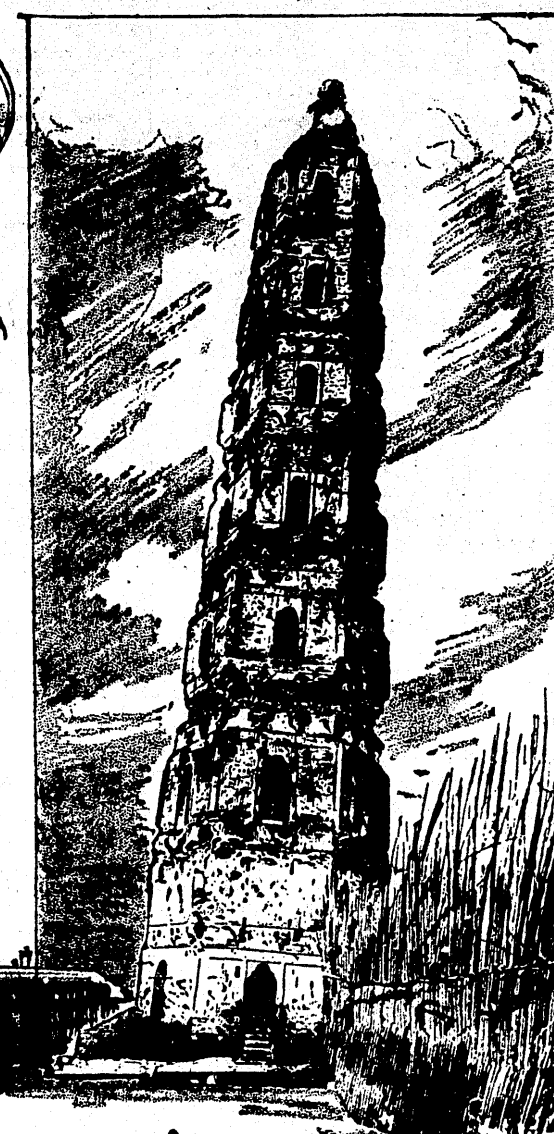

The shake-up among Conrad Hilton Hotel chiefs is threefold: Dean Carpenter moved from Roosevelt to Plaza, Frank Wangeman returns from San Juan's Caribe-Hilton to head the Roosevelt, and Arthur Elmiger of the Waldorf staff sails for Puerto Rico.

Travel Notes—Gene Leone celebrated restaurateur, recently complained to cartoonist Willard Mullin that he needed more exercise. Gene, who flies his own plane, drives autos and rides horses, said what he needed most was walking. Next day Mullin showed up with a pedometer, which he strapped to Signor Leone's leg at 4:45 p.m. When Gene arrived for dinner and a upper trade. As of one a.m. close-in time Mullin checked back. The pedometer had already recorded 12 1/2 miles of walking for eight hours of hustled hosting. Lots of that was up and down stairs.

Odd Turns—Brig. Ian Lyttleton Wright an heroic 45-year-old jungle-fighter confides that he cringed on his first round of the town. This dashing Scot who served in wartime Africa and India and was recently awarded Britain's coveted Distinguished Service Order for his intrepid exploits against Deont forces in Malaya, was frightened by the speed of RCA building's elevators. . . . The Savannah cafe seems to be the only nightclub in town where patrons don't want ringside tables. Its floor show features a five-foot python. . . . When drama doll Nina Foch asked Toor Shor's maitre d' for a table the other evening she advised that Artie Shaw would be joining her. The tardy clarinetist subsequently whispered to the same dining room gatekeeper: "It's our first date. I see four women alone at tables. Which one is Miss Foch?"

Justice Observed—Curiosity prompted Louis Calhern to attend the atom-spy trial in federal court one afternoon. As the film star sat unobtrusively among the crowd he was spotted by Ben Benson, the courtroom attendant who tipped off reporters wish: "Ah I see we have the late U. S. Supreme Court Jus-

Thurman Sensing DOWN SOUTH

SHIFT OF NEGRO POPULATION
The bureau of the census has now released preliminary reports dealing with characteristics of the population in six of our largest states—Ohio, Illinois, Pennsylvania, New York, California, and Texas.

Similar reports for all forty-eight states of the union will not be completed until the latter part of 1951, but these first reports bear out what was rather generally suspected—that there has been a great shift of the Negro population out of the south to the north and west during the decade 1940-1950.

The only southern state included in the above group is Texas. The population of the state of Texas increased 20.2 per cent between 1940 and 1950—from 6,414,824 to 7,711,000. However, the white population increased 24.4 per cent, while the nonwhite population decreased 4.2 per cent. In other words, the white population increased from 5,487,545 to 6,825,000, while the nonwhite population decreased from 927,279 to 886,000.

It should be pointed out, of course, that the designation "non-white" includes Negroes, Indians, Japanese, and Chinese. However, since the percentage of nonwhite in the United States other than Negroes is relatively insignificant, for all practical purposes the non-white populations mentioned herein can be considered to be Negroes.

This means that Texas not only lost 41,000 of its nonwhite population during the decade, but also the growth that would be accounted for by normal birth rate. This segment of the population went somewhere! It was also noted from the first figures released for the 1950 census that the states of Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Mississippi actually had a net decrease in total population. It has been suspected that a shift of states might account for this decrease, and these figures on Texas pretty well support that conclusion.

What actually happened in these three southern states, however, and in the other states of the south (the rate of growth in only four of the sixteen southern states from Texas to Maryland exceeded the national average) as relates to their Negro population must await further census releases.

However, from observing what happened in the other five states mentioned in the beginning of this article, we can tell that they gained a large Negro population from some source.

The nonwhite population in Ohio increased from 341,081 to 470,000 between 1940 and 1950, a gain of 37.8 per cent, whereas the white population only gained 13.9 per cent. The nonwhite population in Illinois increased from 393,039 to 626,000, a gain of 59.8 per cent, compared with a white population gain of 7.7 per cent. The nonwhite population in Pennsylvania increased from 473,191 to 654,000, a gain of 38.2 per cent, compared with a white population gain of 4.4 per cent. The nonwhite population in New York increased from 599,596 to 928,000, a gain of 54.8 per cent, compared with a white population gain of 7.9 per cent. The nonwhite population in California increased from 310,624 to 639,000, a gain of 105.7 per cent, compared with a white population gain of 50.8 per cent.

Summing up the figures for these five states, it will be found that their increase in nonwhite population, which, as noted, would be mainly Negro, totaled 1,202,000 persons. There are now about

George E. Sokolsky: THESE DAYS

NATIONAL POLICE FORCE
J. Edgar Hoover has an opportunity to extend his authority, to build his empire hugely, to obtain increased funds from congress for the FBI. Astonishingly, he rejects the prospects. No one ever heard of a Washington bureaucrat refusing more power and more money.

Yet in the face of a great demand that something should be done to rescue the country from racketeers, dope peddlers, fixers, crooked politicians and money-hungry middlemen, Hoover said this to the Kefauver committee: "This nation has no need for a national police force. Crimes frequently are heard that America, to meet 'the problems of the day,' must create a master, over-all law enforcement agency, whose authority would extend to every nook and cranny of the nation. I disagree with this attitude. My experience has demonstrated that the present system of law enforcement, national, state and local, is the best system. The police officer must be the servant of the people—protecting their interests and responding to their will. The law enforcement agency must be an integral part of the community. Otherwise, the American system of Democratic government would be defiled."

In all the excitement engendered by the Kefauver investigation, three facts stand out:

1. The law must be enforced, but no matter what the urgency, our civil liberties must not be imperiled and our structural relations between the federal, the state and municipal governments must not be altered.

For many years, many reformers have tried to abolish state governments. At one time, the new dealers tried to cut the United States into regions. These efforts failed, but we can destroy our structure by the careless use of our own enthusiasms. J. Edgar Hoover is to be praised for rejecting a trap which would put him at the head of a geo-tapo.

2. It is true that the Mafia does operate in the United States as the Communist party operates in the United States. Neither of them could operate if the American people were alert and if our officials enforced the law. Hoover said:

"There can be no concealment of the fact that law enforcement has not always performed at peak expectations. The fault is not in the system but in the men who operate it. The American people, if they desire competent, efficient and effective administration of justice, must be willing to provide financial means; moral support; and a practical realization of the responsibilities of citizenship. A police department, understaffed, underpaid, and ill-equipped, cannot properly fulfill its duties. Lack of public interest may allow a small minority of peace officers, aided and abetted by corrupt politicians, crooked prosecutors and underpaid fixers to bring shame upon the profession. Action is needed, not to revamp the fundamental structure of American law enforcement, but to strengthen, in technical skill, character and esprit de corps, the existing institutions."

In the shift from a rural to an urban population, a serious change took place in the attitude of the American people to civic responsibilities. Shifting populations add to that the characteristics of a rootless people. Public standards toboggan when the public lacks concern.

It is perhaps a pity that, in recent years, we have become so concerned with foreign affairs and wars and the fears of what that interest in our own affairs has unfortunately shifted, particularly in metropolitan areas where little attention is paid to what is done by public officials.

In fact, in cities like New York, Chicago and Los Angeles, to mention three, elections often hinge on extraneous issues which are in no manner related to a candidate's fitness for the office for which he is running. As long as the people elect an official that way, we shall have poor officials.

3. We have a way of regarding any successful man as a celebrity—even a successful ex-bootlegger—or a successful current fixer. J. Edgar Hoover said of this:

"Too frequently, when pressures mount in local communities by reason of dissatisfaction with conditions, leaders, either to escape the wrath of citizens or to conceal their own inability to cope with situations, have advanced the alibi that 'This is a job for the federal government.' The time has come to take stock. The federal government can never be a satisfactory substitute for local self-government in the enforcement field."

BIBLE THOUGHTS:

We are not to consider the world as a body of God. He is an uniform being, devoid of organs, members, or parts, and they are His creatures, subordinate to Him, and subservient to His will.—Newton.

For if there come unto you assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment.—James 2:2.

one-third as many Negroes in these five states alone as there were in all the sixteen southern states in 1940. And this does not include the figures for the other twenty-seven states outside the south.

These are very significant figures, both from an economic and a sociological standpoint, and further census releases will be awaited with interest.

marines landed April 7 on the southern tip of the peninsula under cover of Republic of Korea (ROK) naval bombardments.

There was no indication how long the marines would remain in the absence of large Red concentrations on the peninsula.

Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway turned over his Eighth army command Saturday to Lt. Gen. James Alward Van Fleet, husky 59-year-old veteran of the Normandy beachhead in World War II and the post-war anti-Communist campaign in Greece. The ceremony was quick—three minutes. Leaving for Tokyo to take over General MacArthur's commands, Ridgway removed the grenade which dangled from his paratrooper harness—a feature of his usual battle dress in Korea.

On his arrival in Tokyo Saturday night, Ridgway assured the Japanese people he would "work toward the completion of the masterly task already largely accomplished under the consummate leadership of General MacArthur."

It was reference to the Japanese peace treaty which Ridgway will handle in addition to his manifold duties as the new United Nations commander. Earlier Ridgway said he intended to devote most of his attention to prosecution of the Korean war.

General Van Fleet took over the Eighth army at a critical time. Chinese and North Korean Communists fought desperately to stem the Allied offensive north of the 38th parallel long enough to launch a major counter-offensive.

Eighth army headquarters reported that Red casualties Friday through ground action alone were 4,315 killed or wounded.

This was up to four times the number of daily casualties inflicted on the Reds during the past week. It indicated much heavier resistance was being offered in fighting that was still obscured by fog.

AP Correspondent John Randolph said the Allies made slow but steady progress in their three-day drive toward Chonwon, 17 miles north of the 38th parallel.

The Allies now stand before the last mountain barrier to the devastated city. A week of savage fighting was required to approach those heights, Randolph said.

Possemen were posted at quarter-mile intervals along roads surrounding the search area. Road blocks were established on all roads within 30 miles of Skifford. The possemen took orders quietly from Col. T. B. Birdsong, chief of the state highway patrol, and Sheriff Johnson, but expressed their determination to capture Durr quickly.

"We don't want this to be another long, drawn-out Willie McGee case," one posseman said, as the hunt began late last night.

He referred to Willie McGee, Laurel, Miss., Negro, scheduled to be electrocuted May 8 for the rape of a white housewife. His case has been in courts since three times on the charge. After the final conviction he appealed three times to the U. S. Supreme Court which each time refused to review his case.

run by Mrs. Jacobs, gave me the case history on one of her students.

"You should have seen her when she came to us."

"For one thing, her clothes were dated. She wore her skirts almost two inches too long. She still wore her hair almost to her shoulder."

I gave an appropriate gasp of horror, and Miss Bell plunged on. "Her colors were too loud, and due to her diet, her skin was in bad condition."

"Her voice was shrill and nasal. Furthermore, she acted too sweet, tried too hard, smiled too broadly and appeared too artificial."

Miss Bell and the other professors went to work on this horror. "She was a hard worker," says Miss B., "and she turned out wonderfully."

Even so, Miss Bell still feels sorry for government girls. She says Washington has no night life, and that the shortage of eligible males here is terrific.

So for girls planning to leave Meddybemps, Dinkie Creek or points in between, I pass on—unanswered—this question by Miss Bell.

Scouts To Hold Ruston 'Camporee'

Ruston, La., April 15.—(Special)—Scouts of the northwest district of the Ouachita Valley council will meet for a "camporee" at Camp Toma April 20 and 21, according to Ben Rush, camping and activities committee chairman in Ruston.

The campsite is about two miles north of Ruston on the Vienna highway.

Rush said that the committee and scouts issued an open invitation to Cub and Girl Scouts, as well as parents and friends, to participate in a basket supper at 6:30 o'clock, and a campfire program slated for 7:45 p.m.

The committee in Ruston will supply food and water, Rush said, but scouts must bring their own meals.

The camporee program is as follows:

Friday April 20; Register and set up camp from 3 until 5 p.m.; supper, 6:30; program, including court of honor and stunt performances, beginning at 7:45 and lasting until 10 p.m.; Saturday morning, skill events and other contests will be held.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Spillers, Indian Village, was the scene of a reunion and birthday dinner to honor E. A. Spillers, two sons, Ocie and Prentiss, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Orville Spillers and a sister-in-law Mrs. J. L. Brady.

The dinner was served buffet style from tables placed on the front lawn. Birthday cakes decorated the table beautifully. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Pennell and family, Edro, Harrell, Larine, Billy Jean and Claude of Cartwright, La.; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Spillers and family, Virginia and Junior of Bastrop; Mr. and Mrs. Orville Spillers and daughter, Shirley Ann of Bastrop; Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss Spillers and family, Clara Bell, Sybil, Melba, Jean, LeRoy and Grady, of Ruston; Mr. and Mrs. Ocie Spillers and sons Donald and Lamore, of Choudrant; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitman and family, James Ray, Caroline, Earl, Laine and Beverly of Choudrant; Mr. and Mrs. Lamine Spillers and family, W. L. and Edna Rae of Cartwright, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Spillers and daughters, Barbara and Patsy Ann, Eros, La.; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pinnell and son, Ronnie, Choudrant; Mrs. L. L. Brady and son, Hiram Brady, Swartz; Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Brady and son, Jeanie, Ruston; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brady and daughter, Patsy Ann, Ruston; and Mrs. R. J. Crocker and daughter, Mary, of Shreveport.

A group of public-spirited citizens bought tickets and made it possible for the boys from Louisiana Training Institute and a number of children from the Baptist Children's Home to attend the special concert Ja Garber's Orchestra put on for the benefit of the Red Cross drive. Attached is a letter of appreciation from Superintendent Black of the Children's Home to Mrs. R. M. Troy who headed the ticket sale and arranged the treat for the children.

Mrs. R. M. Troy, Loop Road, Monroe, Dear Mrs. Troy:

Please accept our most sincere thanks for arranging for some of our children to attend the Jan Garber concert. They enjoyed every minute of it and we are so grateful for your thoughtfulness of this home. We hope you will express our gratitude to all those who had a part in this project.

Thanking you again and with every good wish, we are Yours sincerely, Louisiana Baptist Children's Home, D. C. BLACK, Superintendent.

A silver cup will be awarded to the Mathewettes of St. Matthews' High School at an assembly Monday morning. The cup will be presented by Mrs. Taunton Veazy, executive director of Ouachita parish chapter of the Red Cross, or by some representative from her office in recognition of that pep squad's selling more tickets than any other group to the Jan Garber benefit concert. Those 20 girls not only sold more tickets per capita but more in actual number than the Tigerettes or Lionettes with whom they were competing. Donor of the cup was Ralph Marks, manager of Peacock's Jewelry.

A driver of a DeSard road city bus on Saturday was assigned to a College Avenue-Loop road run. All went as fine as silk until he approached 14th street as he went west on DeSard. Then, from force of habit, he swung his bus north into 14th street, as passengers gasped at the new routing.

"Say fellow," one woman sung out, "where on earth is this bus a-goin'?"

Then the driver's countenance fell. "Oh I thought I was running on DeSard-Park avenue," he said.

With some inconvenience he managed to make a turn about and got back onto DeSard street as the passengers gave him a great laugh.

Small children are real people, all they lack is age, and they show real human characteristics undiluted with that degree of diplomacy that acquire adult. Even in their early years there is inborn a love of money. Here is what the writer observed.

The other day a couple entered a lunch place and took seats at a counter. The man carried a small child in his arms who appeared to be about a year and a half old. She was so active that all dishes and foodstuffs within reach were endangered. The dad, aided by the mother, did all possible to keep his offspring in line. When seemingly under control, the young woman on the next seat at the same counter ordered her lunch. When it came, the waitress was given a dollar bill. An instant later, she brought observer put it, Ridgway's intentions were "homocidal, not geographical." Yet those careful tactics have won real estate as well as costing the enemy huge casualties.

Ridgway was almost a stranger at his own headquarters. He spent much of his time up front.

On Jan. 22, less than a month after his arrival in Korea, he announced:

"The situation is perfect — and getting better all the time."

This dash of humor in an essentially reserved man tickled the fancy of his command. They liked the balding general who wore battle fatigues like they did, and even lit an occasional cigarette for a GI.

"We will make no deals that would reward aggression."

After saying he welcomed "fair and honest debate" on foreign policy, he continued:

"But in recent months we have had too much political hokum attacking the bi-partisan foreign policy."

"The people who are making these attacks can not agree on any foreign policy of their own. They are just against the foreign policy this country is following. They are not trying to help this country find its way in these troubled times. They are just trying to confuse us."

Calling for national unity, he said:

"Our country is in deadly danger. We face a powerful and ruthless enemy. The only way we can prevail over that enemy is for every man and woman in this country to put national interests above personal interests."

To those who have advocated that American forces get out of Korea the president said they are making "a terrible mistake."

"If we got out of Korea," he continued, "the Communist leaders would strike somewhere else. They would strike at Japan or the middle east or in Europe."

"And sooner or later they would go on to strike at South America, and at our own country."

Turning to a discussion of critics whom he called "confusers," he said he would give a few examples of their thinking.

"They say they want a powerful defense system, second to none — but they are against universal military training."

"They say they want other free nations to resist aggression — but they don't want us to send any troops to help."

"They want us to get out of Korea — but they urge us to wage an aggressive war against China."

in the coalition cabinet of Churchill and the labor government of Prime Minister Attlee. His health finally broke under the strain in 1949.

Increasingly frequent illnesses — he suffered from heart trouble, asthma, high blood pressure and piles — kept him from his duties at critical times, and he finally accepted on March 9 the less onerous duties of Lord Privy Seal.

He was succeeded at the foreign office by Herbert Morrison. His death came as a shock to the British. Arthur Deakin, who succeeded him as general secretary of the big Transport and General Workers Union, said he talked with him this morning and "he was in perfectly good spirits."

Bevin became ill suddenly in mid-afternoon, however. A member of his staff at his apartment in Carlton Gardens summoned a physician and Mrs. Bevin, who was on for the afternoon, Bevin died soon after 5 p.m.

A poverty-stricken orphan at eight, Bevin went to work at the age of 11. He never saw the inside of one of Britain's swank public schools. All his scholarships were won in the school of hard knocks.

He had been a farm hand, dishwasher, street car conductor, beer truck driver, and hobo before he embarked on the career of labor organizer.

Long a powerful figure in the labor movement, he was picked by Churchill in the darkest days of 1940 to head the labor ministry.

As ruthless in behalf of the nation as he once had been in behalf of his union, he banned strikes and lockouts, ordered compulsory labor arbitration, froze essential workers in their jobs and directed others into war production, all in Britain's intense civilian mobilization.

It was his lot to guide Britain through a world of trouble when he became foreign secretary. He helped give a new look to the British Empire in the face of postwar demands for change and freedom. India, Pakistan and Ceylon became dominions. Burma and Palestine became independent. Room was made in the commonwealth for India, though she declared herself a Republic. Hard-pressed Britain surrendered her primary responsibility for the defense of Greece and Turkey to the United States.

Ridgway would not admit defeat. One of his first public statements, to South Korean President Syngman Rhee was homely and blunt:

"I am to stay," he said. He did that, and more.

Slowly the Red tide was halted. Then reversed with a new application of old field tactics—limited offensive, making maximum use of Allied superiority in air, artillery and armor.

He encouraged the use of the bayonet in close-fought actions, but preferred to soften up Red positions thoroughly with artillery and bombs, and clean out all areas thoroughly before sending tanks and troops forward.

LOCAL LEA UNIT HEARS DR. DEERE

Speaker Explains Great Fight Being Waged For Better Schools

The Ouachita parish chapter of the Louisiana Educational Association held its regular meeting at Millsaps School the past week.

The picture "Fight for Better Schools" was shown which pointed out the need of parents, teachers, officials and national educational organizations working together for the betterment of our schools.

Dr. George Deere, coordinator for the forthcoming workshop in Ouachita parish, was the speaker for the evening on the subject, "Professional Growth." He reinforced the implications of the film that the American school is one of the most significant agencies for "interpreting, promoting, and refining our democratic way of life." It is the task of the educator to shift various claims and proposals and to formulate clearly his purposes. This can only be done as he works cooperatively with parents, teachers, students and laymen.

I think we in Louisiana are going professional fast. A close look at the picture will reveal what I mean. Even thirty years ago teachers were permitted to teach youngsters who had not themselves finished high school. The job as a school teacher was simply for supplementary reasons. The salaries were low, therefore there was not inducement to prepare for teaching. Teachers were a unique group of people who were labeled as such. If the public had been as aware as it is now the plight certainly would not have been as motley.

Let us take a look at the picture now. In the first place, what are professionals?

1. The professional is a person who is required to have a high school degree of technical schooling—each in his own field. When we say we are going to be a teacher, we then prepare for that job. Teaching is no longer a job on the side. The more we insist on this point the more the public will respect.

2. The professional enters the profession because he likes it and stays with it as a life's calling. Up until his time the constant "turn over" of teachers has posed one of our major problems. It has caused difficulty in stabilizing the teaching process.

3. The professional receives livable remuneration—despite the high cost of living. We have much to be desired in this respect yet.

4. The professional sets standards for—in the teaching profession we have been too satisfied. The degree to which we set standards will determine the degree of respect.

5. The professional sets ethical standards—We are prone to set a standard for judging. This may be a weak point in the teaching profession, however, this is not general. We are interested in the raising of standards. We might well do some experimenting with our tenure laws. However, there is a danger point here, it is better to keep the status quo than to tear down completely.

Again, I say, we are going professional fast in Louisiana. Your workshop is one of many examples.

Contempt Declared Against Scientist

Washington, April 13. —Dr. Clarence Hiskey, scientist, was acquitted today of a charge of contempt of congress.

Hiskey was indicted for refusing to answer questions during a house un-American activities committee investigation of atomic spying. Hiskey's name figured prominently in the inquiry.

U.S. District Judge Burnita Shelton Matthews, who heard the case without a jury, acquitted the scientist after listening to long legal arguments.

Hiskey then repeated to reporters previous denials that he ever engaged in espionage or committed any other disloyal act.

He was suspended as an associate professor of analytical chemistry by Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn after his indictment.

Judge Matthews ruled that Hiskey had reasonable cause for apprehension that answering the questions might tend to incriminate him. In refusing to answer, Hiskey relied on the constitutional privilege against self incrimination.

More insects may be found in a single square mile than there are people in the world, says the Book of Knowledge.

FLAG CEREMONY HELD IN SCHOOL

Old Glory Is Replaced
By New Stars And Stripes Here

The fifth grade of the Barkdull Faulk School recently gave an assembly program featuring the flag of the United Nations, and the flag code. The children were impressed by the instructions: "When a flag is worn out, it should be taken out of doors and reverently burned." As the school had an old, worn flag which has been flown from the staff for many years, they planned a flag-burning ceremony to be witnessed by the student body and followed by the raising of a new flag.

The commander of the American Legion, Alex Lea, and Legionaire J. B. Braun, supplied instructions for the ceremony and secured the services of a bugler, John Birdsong, from Neville High School. The school was honored by having Commander Lea attend the ceremony Friday morning.

The students assembled around the large grass plot in front of the building. To the stirring notes of "To the Colors" played by John Birdsong, the old flag was raised to the top of the staff. The children saluted and repeated the pledge to the flag. The bugle call "Retreat" was sounded and the old flag slowly lowered. It was received by the honor guard from the fifth grade, Guy Coates, Tommy Roberts, Charles Storey, and Clyde Thompson, who placed it over a horizontal staff carried by Lanny Johnson and Kenneth Cromwell. It was carried to a square marked off in the center of the grass plot, where the old flag had been removed to receive the ashes. The honor guard knelt and set fire to the bottom edge, and as it burned, "Taps" was played by the bugler.

As the remains of the old flag dropped to the ground, a large new flag was raised, as the bugler once more played "To the Colors," and the children cheered.

In Contests Held In Ruston Rally

In the district state rally held on Friday in Ruston at Louisiana Polytechnic, St. Matthew's High School students carried off a number of high places in the literary contests, chalked up a total of thirty-one points.

With seventeen entries from the local school, and fifteen students participating in the literary events, ten brought back first, second, third and fourth places. The results are as follows:

Richard Petrus: First place in physics.

Pat Jenevein: First place in American history; third in English.

Caroline Block: First place in Latin; first place in civics.

Kerry Smith: Second place in interpretative reading.

Lucille Tornatore: Third place in interpretative reading.

Charles Breard: Third place in English.

Evelyn Ann Jernigan: Second place in Latin.

David Eberts: Fourth place in spelling.

St. Matthew's is classed as a B-school according to the enrollment of students. Participation in the various state rallies has been a policy in the school for the last decade or so, and provides a wealth of experiences for the students.

Hormones, Glands May Hold Key To Return Of Youth

By Alton B. Blakeslee

(Associated Press Political Reporter)

St. Louis, April 14.—Hormones and glands may hold keys to longer healthy life, and perhaps renewed youth, two physicians said today.

They told of gland studies, at the close of the annual meeting of the American College of Physicians.

Dr. William B. Kountz of Washington University, St. Louis, told of giving male and female sex hormones to women 60 to 85 years old. They began to menstruate again. The tissues of the womb or uterus could be revitalized and returned to what seemed to be normal function, he said.

The hormones didn't cause any disease. Blood supply benefited. Hardening of arteries in the womb appeared to be lessened in some cases.

Other body tissues, in the skin and mucous membrane of the nose, became revitalized or younger again, too. There were mental benefits, an increase in interests, industriousness and sense of well being, apparent improvement in memory and ability to think.

The most significant effect of the hormones was to stimulate the nutrition or food supply of body tissues, and this is the important thing to be studied, Dr. Kountz said.

Dr. Thomas M. McGavack, of New York Medical College, New York City, described physical and chemical changes in glands as people grow older. Many of these changes can be reversed, at least partly, by giving the hormone that the gland produces.

Upsets in the way that glands react just when sex glands become less active may play a part in the development of some old-age diseases, he suggested. But hereditarily, the passage of years, and the stresses borne during life all affect aging, too, he pointed out.

Other physicians reported studies to learn the changes that bring on hardening of the arteries. If the causes are learned, the dangerous hardening might be prevented.

Those "unexpected deaths" from heart attacks are not always so unexpected as they may appear, said Dr. Henry M. Winans of Southwestern Medical School of the University of Texas, Dallas.

He studied 12 such deaths. In most, there had been warning signs, he said. But some people hadn't told their doctor about these signs, for fear the news might affect their business, civic or social relations. Some wouldn't admit any impairment, and kept on with "unwise exertion." In others, given health exams shortly before the fatal attack, the exam often was not the kind that would detect the heart disease, Dr. Winans said.

More detective work by doctors, including psychological detective work, might prevent many of these deaths, he said.

Father Electrocuted While Trying To Aid Son

Indianapolis, April 14.—A father going to the aid of his son was electrocuted early today by a power line knocked down by the son's automobile.

The father was Marion Wilcox, 47, of Plainfield, ten miles west of here.

The son, Morris Lee Wilcox, 18, lost control of his car on a road southwest of Indianapolis and it knocked down a pole carrying high tension wires. The boy and another youth with him were not hurt.

Young Wilcox telephoned his father at Plainfield. The father was killed when he became entangled in the wires in the darkness after stepping from his car at the scene of the accident.

them on the way there by a contempt citation.

In several instances in the Kefauver investigation, lawyers who had carefully coached their clients to use variations of the old dodge suddenly decided their act hadn't worked and advised that the time had come to talk. They apparently concluded, after consideration, that refusal to talk meant a certain jail term; and that if they did answer questions, corroborative evidence would be needed for indictment.

One defense which will probably fall on its own fantasy is that of the two Cleveland gamblers whose smart lawyers had them make statements that because they were before television cameras, movie and still cameras, their constitutional rights were being invaded. It is doubtful if any judges who had read Federal Judge Learned Hand's famous opinion on the "doctrine of public illumination" in the Associated Press case would fall for that.

WINS CONTEST

Janis Gale Hatten, above, six-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hatten, of West Monroe, has been named the winner of a baby contest sponsored by Larry Robinson studio. Judges announced the selection last week.

The Bill of Rights provision has an effect something like the rigid requirements for conviction for treason in the Constitution. Even though the underworld characters may be guilty, the courts are inclined to act on contempt citations rather than wait for indictments. District of Columbia prosecutors over a period of years have insisted that at least such defendants go to jail for contempt while indictments and trials often miss fire.

As cases involving traffic with an enemy country have been tried on perjury charges, because of the strict definition of treason and the requirement that there be at least two witnesses of the treasonable act to testify, so the protection given defendants on self incrimination has developed not only the contempt citation, but an occasional case of the third degree to get confessions. But in every test, it has been upheld by the United States supreme court.

COURSE PLANNED IN PSYCHOLOGY

State Safety Council Sponsoring Business Supervision Study

Completion of plans for a special course in "Psychology in Business and Supervision" which is being sponsored by the Louisiana State Safety Council, was announced today by J. R. Troeltzsch, vice-president of the state organization.

Dr. J. L. Rosenstein, professor of psychology at Loyola University of Chicago, will conduct the course, which will be held May 21 in the Cameo Room of the Virginia hotel. The course which will cover a period of six hours and will be divided into two sessions, one morning session and one afternoon session. Exact time of the sessions will be announced at a later date.

This course was recently conducted by Dr. Rosenstein at Shreveport, and many who attended the series of lectures came away enthusiastically proclaiming this course one of the finest series of lectures ever presented in this state.

Dr. Rosenstein listed four points as the basis for his lectures: 1. psychology for executives, 2. what most executives overlook, 3. human relations or public relations, 4. why workers lay off, slow down, sit down or sit back. Emphasis has been placed on the fact that the course has been designed particularly for business executives, sales department heads, management, safety and supervisory workers.

The course is being given the complete support of the Ouachita parish safety council and while the series of lectures is not primarily based on safety, this series does include safety in all subjects.

R. M. Kettenring, president of the Ouachita parish safety council, urges anyone interested in the course to contact him at his home, 205 Smith St., Monroe, or J. R. Troeltzsch who may be reached at Commercial Solvents Corporation, Sterlington.

RABBI HIRSCH IS RE-ELECTED

Dave Silverstein Chosen President Of B'Nai Israel Congregation

Rabbi F. K. Hirsch was re-elected for two years service by the B'Nai Israel congregation at their annual meeting Thursday night in the temple annex.

David C. Silverstein was elected president of the congregation and Herman Masur vice-president. Four new members of the board of trustees were also elected. They are: Fred "Pappy" Strauss, Stewart Doernburgh, Jacob Pickens and Sachman arx.

Dr. Hirsch, who was re-elected for a two-year term, which upon completion of the congregation ruling is the longest period which a rabbi can be elected for, will complete 25 years of service for the congregation at the end of his present term.

During his service period as rabbi for the B'Nai Israel congregation, Dr. Hirsch has served in the capacity of chairman or board member of many civic organizations in the Twin Cities. The rabbi has given 43 years of devoted service to congregations which he has led.

Outgoing president is Dr. Bert Heinberg and retiring vice-president, David C. Silverstein. Retiring board members are Mrs. Frances Marcus, David M. Kaplan, David Kaplan, and Allan Sugar, Sr.

TAX REPORT ON SERVANTS DUE

April 30 Is Deadline For Reporting Tax Payments To Household Workers

Washington, April 14. —A new chore for many households must be performed by April 30 and repeated each three months thereafter: Making social security reports and tax payments for 1,000,000 household servants.

The same thing will be true for employers of about 850,000 agricultural workers who, like household workers, were brought into social security's big old-age and survivors insurance system last January 1.

The system provides for benefit payments of at least $20 monthly to qualified workers upon retirement after reaching the age of 65.

Employers who fail to meet the April 30 filing deadline can be charged five per cent of the amount due for each 30 day delay, up to a 25 per cent maximum. There is also a six per cent annual interest charge on unpaid taxes.

Violations of the requirements — deliberate evasions, for example — can be punished more severely. Penalties could run as high as $50,000 fine and five years in prison.

Servants (maids, laundresses, etc.) who were paid $50 or more in cash in a calendar quarter (January, February, March in this instance), and who worked at least 24 different days — or part days, regardless of the number of hours — in that or the October-November-December quarter. Two days work weekly is enough to meet the requirement.

Farm workers must stick with the same employer five months to qualify. As a preliminary, they must have put in a full quarter (October-November-December) working regularly for one farm operator. Then, to be covered, they must have worked another 60 days and received $50 or more in cash pay in another quarter (January-February-March) of working for the same employer.

Monroe Attorney Gets L. S. U. Honor

Baton Rouge, La., April 14. —Thomas W. Leigh, Monroe attorney and member of Louisiana State University's board of supervisors, becomes an honorary member of L. S. U.'s order of the Glee chapter here next week.

Each year, an honorary member is named when the L. S. U. chapter of the National Legal Honorary Society selects student and faculty members. The annual initiation banquet is scheduled here Wednesday.

Eight students from L. S. U.'s 1951 law class and two members of the law faculty are up for induction. The faculty members are Jerome J. Shestack and Huey B. Fowler. The students include: Kenneth Rigby, William R. Neal, and John Richie, all of Shreveport; Jimmy Stoker of Baton Rouge; Lawrence E. Donohoe, of Winnfield; Thomas Harrell of DeRidder; Ellis C. Magee of Franklinton; and E. Drew McKinnis of Fort Worth, Texas.

Solomon S. Goldman, New Orleans attorney named honorary member in 1950, is scheduled to read Leigh's citation this year. Other honorary members include Dean Emeritus Robert Lee Tullis of the L. S. U. law school; Howard Gist of Alexandria; John H. Tucker Jr. of Shreveport; Ben Taylor of Baton Rouge; Chief Justice John O. Fournet of the state supreme court and Cecil Bird of Baton Rouge.

The first harps were made from the ribs of the warrior's bow.

ELECTED BY CONGREGATION

Rabbi F. K. Hirsch, left, was elected by the B'Nai Israel congregation for a succeeding two year term, which upon completion will be 25 years of continuous service. David C. Silverstein, right, was elected at the annual meeting Thursday night in the temple annex to serve as president of the congregation.

Indian Maharajah Losing All Titles And Big Pension

By R. Satakopani
New Delhi, India, April 14. —India is stripping all royal titles, privileges and a $556,000 yearly pension from the wealthy maharajah of Baroda on charges involving both his monetary affairs and national security, informed sources said tonight.

The thick-set, turf-loving maharajah whose fast horses and fast spending habits attract international attention, conferred tonight with his advisers on how to meet the action.

He wore a worried expression and a flashy American sports shirt.

President Rajendra Prasad wrote the maharajah a two-page letter today. The informed sources said this announced the government's decision and gave the maharajah a month to prepare a defense to these charges:

1-The maharajah is reported to be financing reactionaries, thereby affecting the security of India.

2-The Council of Princes which he formed (to protect former rulers who have lost their domains since India won independence from Britain) is opposed to the interests of the Indian Republic.

3-The maharajah's questioning of the merger of his principedom (with Bombay state) in 1949 is a challenge to the constitution.

4-His statements furthering a newspaper controversy with the states ministry are malicious.

5-The maharajah has not yet accounted for 23,500,000 rupees ($4,935,000) he took from the Baroda state treasury after India gained her freedom in 1947.

The treasury case recalls a charge by the Baroda legislature in 1948 that the maharajah had squandered $10,000,000 in a six-week spending spree, using funds misappropriated from the state. His abdication was demanded.

The maharajah got the news on shipboard as he was returning to London from New York. Heavily bejeweled, he shrugged off the accusation with the explanation he never thought in terms of money. The furore dissolved after he took a plane home from Britain and went to work on the case.

The Indian government arrangement is for the titles and privileges to go to his son, Fateh Singh, 21. A prince without a throne or a kingdom, the son will be paid $210,000 (1,000,000 rupees) a year.

The deposed maharajah's $556,000 yearly pension, a privy purse of 2,650,000 rupees, had been fixed under the merger deal only for his own lifetime.

The maharajah, whose income has been estimated as high as $8,000,000 a year, shouldn't have to go hungry in any event. Vast private estates provide for him, his two wives, four sons and four daughters.

But he will lose mouth-filling titles from the old (take a deep breath): "Mah. Gen. his highness Farzand-Khas-Daulat - Inglishia Maharajah Sir Pratap Singh Gaekwar, Sena Khas Kel Samsher Bahadur." He keeps the title of major general.

The merger with Bombay state brought Baroda, a 250-year-old principedom of 8,000 square miles and more than 3,000,000 people, under the rule of the Republic. The maharajah petitioned President Prasad recently to reopen the question, but has told the merger paper he signed in 1949 was final and irrevocable.

ACTORS, WRITERS REFUSE TO TALK

Four Claim They Won't Testify For Fear Of In crimination

Washington, April 14. —A Hollywood quartet — two actors and two writers—refused today to tell the house un-American activities committee whether they were Communists.

None of the four is a big name in pictures. All of them based their refusals on the constitutional provision that a man can't be compelled to incriminate himself. They are:

Victor Killian, character actor who has appeared in about 130 films. Killian told questioners that if he knew of any organization which advocates overthrow of the government, "I would report it to the proper authorities."

Fred Graff, a 31-year old free lance actor. He said he was "pretty indignant" about being called to Washington where "they're eating only two parts here today, pigeon or stool-pigeon."

Waldo Slat, who helped write such films as "Shopworn Angel" and "The Flame and the Arrow."

Paul Jarico, writer whose most recent film was "The Las Vegas Story."

Jarico and Slat were named before the un-American activities committee yesterday by Richard J. Collins, another screen writer, as among 25 persons in Hollywood he had known as party members.

When Collins was on the stand he said that as recently as ten days ago Jarico pleaded with him not to turn "stool pigeon" on his Hollywood comrades.

Today, when Jarico's turn came he declared that Collins "perjured himself before this committee."

"Perjury is a grave offense," commented Chairman Wood (D-Cal.), asking for details. Jarico would go no further, however.

Slat told the committee he was not a member of the Ku Klux Klan, when asked this by Rep. Potter (R-Mich.). Potter obviously anticipated the "no" reply and followed it up:

"What's the difference between saying whether you are a Ku Kluxer and whether you are a member of the Communist party?" he demanded.

"A lot of difference," Slat replied. "One man's subversion is another man's patriotism. I consider the activities of this committee subversive of the constitution," he snapped at Rep. Doyle (D-Cal.).

Slat said that most of the questions he turned down "could be proudly answered, yes or no, in most countries of the world except in Argentina, Spain and this country."

Chairman Wood wouldn't let Jarico read a long statement about communism, freedom and peace. He was allowed to submit it for the record, however.

Without mentioning names, States Minister N. G. Ayangar told parliament April 3 that any association or agitation by disgruntled princes to get back their lands "will be dealt with sternly and firmly."

Chairman Wood wouldn't let Jarico read a long statement about communism, freedom and peace. He was allowed to submit it for the record, however.

Overthrow Plot In Bolivia Found

La Paz, Bolivia, April 14. —National police announced today discovery of a revolutionary plot and later clashed with street demonstrators who accused of staging a demonstration to coincide with it.

Col. Canedo Palaez, director general of the police, said his men had dispersed a group of "approximately 300" demonstrating over the scheduled return of an exiled opposition political leader, Victor Paz Estenssoro, from Argentina. Julio Quiroga, manager here of Braniff airlines, said Paz Estenssoro had been detained in Asuncion, Paraguay.

Police fired shots and used tear gas bombs to disperse the demonstrators. About 20 persons, including their leaders were reported under arrest.

The plot was aimed at provoking a revolutionary outbreak, during which an attempt would be made to assassinate President Mamerto Urriolagoitia, police said.

They identified the 300 demonstrators as members of the Revolutionary Nationalist Movement (M. N. R.), which nominated the exiled leader to run for election.

Five Gunmen Take $35,000 Payroll

Newburyport, Mass., April 14. —Five masked gunmen grabbed a $35,000 payroll in the yard of a nationally known sterling silver plant today and shot their way out, critically wounding a police man, but not before his fire crippled their escape car.

It was the biggest looting in Massachusetts since the unsolved record haul of $1,200,000 at Brin's Inc., in Boston Jan. 17, 1950.

As Patrolman George F. Lawler, 46, dropped with wounds in the neck and right leg he scored a hit on a rear tire of the gang's stolen automobile.

Minutes later the flat jered them to a wobbling stop. But the five, masked in red bandanas and with drawn sawed-off shotguns and 45 pistols, stopped a car behind them, forced out the driver and sped away in it.

Mother Wins Fight With Draft Board

Newark, N. J., April 14.—(P)—An irate mother berated a local draft board for trying to induct her son into the army—and she won the battle.

The draft board looked yesterday at the prospective soldier, Michael J. Collins, and then told his mother to "just forget about it."

Michael is only eight years old. Furthermore, the boy told the board, "when I get big enough I'm not going to join the army. I'm going to join the navy."

The board apologized to Michael's mother, Mrs. George Collins, saying it was all a mistake they could not explain.

Pueblo is a Spanish word meaning "town" or "village."

SOUTHERN GIRLS COLLECT $13,000

Over Half Of Miss America Scholarships Awarded To Dixie Belles

Girls representing nine southern states won one - half of the $26,000 in scholarships awarded at the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City last September. Including Miss America from Alabama, a total of $13,000.00 was won by beauties of the south. With fifty - four contestants representing every state and possessions of the United States we can truly say that the south is the home of beauty and charm.

The winner of the Miss Louisiana Pageant to be held in Lake Providence June 2-3 will participate in the national finals at Atlantic City with all expenses paid. In addition, she will receive her entire wardrobe, a life - size oil portrait to be painted by Albert R. Manning and Eugenia Trachta, world famous artists, who have done all the beauties including Yolande Betheze, the present Miss America. Miss Louisiana will receive a scholarship of $1,000.00 from Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc, the Hadaacol King. She will be the official representative of the state of Louisiana at all official functions in the south.

Girls, if you have natural beauty, are between the ages of 18 and 26 inclusive, never have been married, have graduated from high school or are a senior this year with any talent (musical, dramatic, dancing, art or unusual hobby) send a recent picture and your physical measurements, education and talent to the Miss Louisiana Pageant, Lake Providence, La.

PRINCESS WARNED

New Delhi, India, April 14.—(P)—Prime Minister Nehru describes the newly deposed Maharajah of Baroda today as a bad example to the rest of India's pensioned princes. He warned them to play ball with the government.

Baroda is considered the brains of a union 14 of the princes formed last winter to guard their rights under the deals by which the republic has taken over their princedom since the British quit India in 1947.

PRESIDENT

Robert Ed Taylor, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Taylor of 407 Filhol in West Monroe, has been elected president of the student body for the year 51-52 at Centenary College in Shreveport, Louisiana. Taylor is an outstanding student at the college. He is the president of the Ministerial Club; a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honorary fraternity; active in the Methodist Student Movement; on the staff of the Yoncopin, the school year book, and is on the committee for planning the weekly chapel programs. He is majoring in Bible.

Founder Of Press League Succumbs

Dallas, Tex., April 14.—(P)—Samuel William Papert, 54, founder and president of the Texas Daily Press League, died early today in a local hospital.

He had been ill about 10 days. Papert organized the TDPL in 1923, shortly after moving here from Texarkana, Tex., where he had been advertising manager of a newspaper there. The Press League is a newspaper representative organization with more than 50 members.

He was born in Springfield, Wis., and had been in the newspaper profession at New York City before coming to Texas.

The widow, a son and a daughter, all of Dallas, survive.

Birth rates of more than 40 per thousand people a year are rare.

KIWANIS SHOW WILL MAKE HIT

'Born Yesterday' Promises To Delight All Who Attend

Anyone hearing roars of laughter in the vicinity of Neville High School next Saturday night should not be alarmed, as it will be from the audience enjoying "Born Yesterday," a play sponsored by the Monroe Kiwanis Club. Staged by the Civic Drama Guild of New York, a professional Broadway cast will be featured in "Born Yesterday," the funniest and most entertaining play staged during this decade.

The Monroe Kiwanis club has presented many entertaining projects to raise money for important youth activity programs, but the club believes that this year its project will offer more entertainment and laughs than any in the past. Last year, as a result of the Kiwanis sponsored baseball game, the club used the funds to build a Girl Scout camp. This camp is now completed and the club looks with pride at being able to be the spark for having it built. In order to continue to aid the youth of the community, the club decided to present two plays, one of which has already been seen several weeks ago.

Anyone who wants tickets and lives out of town may write to Neon Sign Service, North 8th St., Monroe, Kiwanian Dave Agnew will see that their orders are filled for reserve seats or general admissions. Tickets are $2.50 for reserved seats, $1.75 for general admission, and 75 cents for children. Prices include tax.

Curtain time will be 8 p.m. at Neville High School, April 21. The public is urged to attend this rare entertainment treat. It isn't often that a play like "Born Yesterday" is brought to Monroe with a professional cast. It is interesting to note that the original star of this play, Miss Judy Holiday, won an "Oscar" for her acting in the movie version. The plot is humorous, and is cleverly woven to give the audience the maximum in laugh entertainment.

Trees produce a greater proportion of food in the tropics than anywhere else in the world.

Carter Buys Into Natchez Paper

Natchez, Miss., April 14.—(P)—Publisher Hocking Carter and Business Manager John Gibson of the Greenville, Miss., Delta Democrat Times acquired a half interest with operational control of the Natchez Times today.

Announcement of the change in ownership and management was announced by President Charles Herold of the Natchez Times, a five - day afternoon and Sunday morning paper. The change became effective today.

Herold, a Natchez wholesaler, and a group of other businessmen founded the Times two and a half years ago.

Herold will continue as president of the publishing company with Carter as vice - president and publisher, and Gibson as secretary-treasurer and general manager. Members of the board of directors beside the officers will be E. E. Blanchard, C. F. Engle and Walter P. Abbott, all of Natchez, who were stockholders and directors prior to the change.

Carter, a Pulitzer prize winner, said no present changes in personnel are contemplated, but that the editorial and business staffs would be expanded immediately.

Carter also announced the content and typography of the Times would be changed considerably.

MacArthur Wants White House Moved To Tokyo?

Philadelphia, April 14.—(P)—James B. Carey, CIO secretary-treasurer, said today that General Douglas MacArthur "wanted to transfer the White House from Washington to Tokyo."

MacArthur, in his controversy with President Truman, has the support "of the same reactionary forces that have seized control of the defense effort," said Carey, who also is president of the CIO's international union of electrical, radio and machine workers (873).

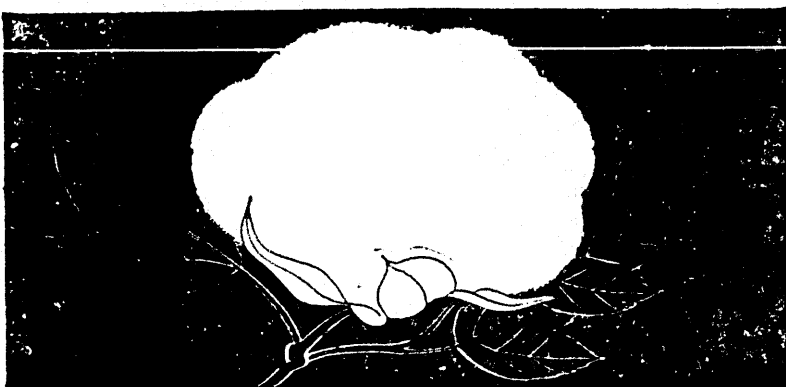

Speaking at the conclusion of the three-day Pennsylvania CIO convention, Carey said:

"The aim is to wrest the U.S. government from its constituted authorities."

"Last fall Charles E. Wilson demanded and got a power over the nation's economy that made him virtually a second president."

"Since that succeeded, we found General MacArthur trying the same scheme He wanted to transfer the White House from Washington to Tokyo"

Pre-Emergence weed control in Cotton with

PREMERGE

A NEW AID TO PROFITABLE COTTON PRODUCTION

This season, Dow offers cotton growers a new dinitro type weed killer—PREMERGE—which can be applied to the soil during the planting operation. This important development is the result of three years of field testing by Dow Technical Service men in cooperation with state experiment stations—plus a successful season of commercial trial—in the Delta sections of Mississippi, Louisiana and Arkansas.

EFFECTIVE... ECONOMICAL

When applied with a sprayer mounted on the planter, or as a separate treatment within 24 hours after planting, PREMERGE controls germinating weed and grass seedlings in the top soil for as long as six weeks.

- PREMERGE will control: Crab grass, pigweed, Florida Pusley, crowfoot grass, and most other annual grasses.
- PREMERGE will reduce the population of: Cockleburrs, coffee weeds, and morning glories.
- PREMERGE will not control: Nutgrass, Johnson grass, Bermuda grass, and some of the deep-rooted vines.

This new development is particularly important at this time when there may be a shortage of labor and maximum cotton production is your goal.

PREMERGE IS NEW... USE IT CORRECTLY FOR BEST RESULTS!

Consult your Dow dealer or your local agricultural experiment station for suggestions on the use of this material. Or write directly to Midland-Dept. AG-51-161—for information on the use of PREMERGE in cotton and other large-seeded, deep-planted crops. Dow Technical Service men are available to help you incorporate PREMERGE in a successful cotton production program.

MAJORS PRIMED FOR ANOTHER BANNER YEAR

TWO GAMES WILL OPEN BIG LEAGUE PLAY TOMORROW

Season Will Be In Full Swing Tuesday With One Night Contest On Tap

By Gayle Talbot
New York, April 14.—(AP)—Another big league baseball season opens on Monday, and millions will turn from their troubled reflections to greet with traditional warmth the return of their favorite sport.

The peacetime draft already has cut heavily into the ranks of the younger stars and is certain to take an increasing toll as the summer progresses, but the game's leaders are confident they will play through to another World Series in October, barring a major conflict.

Overflow crowds which have witnessed scores of exhibition games through the south and west indicate that interest in the coming races is at a high pitch nationally. The minor leagues, it is generally agreed, are in for a hard time this year, but not the majors.

President Truman, observing custom, is scheduled to throw out the first ball for the American League's solo opener at Washington between the World Champion New York Yankees and the Capital's Senators.

The National League for the first time, also is staging a special pre-opening attraction between the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Cincinnati Reds, at Cincinnati. The remaining 12 clubs in the two leagues will not swing into action until Tuesday.

As the campaign begins — the 75th for the National League, the 50th for the American — Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler still is in office after a rough winter. Whether he will continue to rule the game through the season appears to be anybody's guess.

Chandler, finally and formally, was rejected by the owners at a special meeting in March, but his contract runs until May next year.

The big question, of course, is whether Manager Casey Stengel's Yankees can win their third straight championship, their fourth within five years. In the past two World Series the glamor team from the Bronx has lost only one game, and its four- straight shellacking of the Philadelphia Phillies last fall was a real crusher for the National League.

But there is, in this observer's opinion, real reason to suspect that the reign of the Bombers is nearing a lapse, and that either the Cleveland Indians or the Boston Red Sox will be sitting on top of the American League when the flag drops next autumn. Probably Cleveland.

The Yanks, for one thing, have been suffering too many aches and pains during their triumphal tour of the west. One of their top pitchers, Allie Reynolds, is having serious arm trouble, and Shortstop Phil Rizzuto, the heart of the club, will play on Monday with a side which gives him stabbing pain when he swings a bat. Ed (Whitey) Ford, the sensational freshman southpaw, has been lost to the draft.

On the credit side, the champions have come up with one of those once-in-a-lifetime rookies in Mickey Mantle. You may safely believe everything you have read about the boy they are grooming to take Joe DiMaggio's place in the outfield.

Mickey's draft board has reclassified him 4-F because of a chronic infection in ankle. He might supply the impetus to Casey Stengel's team to its third straight.

Cleveland has added terrific hitting power in a pair of Negro rookies from San Diego, Harry Simpson and Orestes Minoso, and has a sharp new manager in Al Lopez, the former catcher. Boston has strengthened its pitching staff by the acquisition of Ray Scarborough and Willie Wright from the Chicago White Sox and has been bolstered by the addition of Lou Boudreau.

The surprise package of the exhibition season, incidentally, has been the White Sox. Under Paul Richards, another smart pilot new to the majors, the Hose have been setting a torrid pace. They might easily leap from sixth place into the first division. They may have the game's best shortstop in Chico Carrasquel.

In the National League, most of the spring talk has been about Leo Durocher's New York Giants. They were the hottest club in either league the close of last season, and they appear to be taking up right where they left off. It looks like a three-cornered fight between them, the Phillies and the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Phillies have about the same team which beat out Brooklyn on the final day of the '50 campaign, with perhaps some additional infield strength. The only important difference is that Curt Simmons, the White Sox' great young southpaw, will not be around to help them at all, having been drafted last season.

Brooklyn has a new manager, popper Charlie Dressen, and some baseball men think Charlie will get a little more out of the Dodgers than did Burt Shotton did last year. They still are leaders with

Americans Eliminated From International Tennis Play

Rome, April 14.—(AP)—The last two Americans, Bud Savitt of Los Angeles and Dick Savitt of Orange, N. J., were bounced out of the Rome International Tennis Tournament today in the semi-final round.

Gianni Cuculli, of the Italian Davis Cup team pulled off the biggest upset when he licked first-seeded Patty, the Wimbledon Champion, 7-5, 6-2, 4-6, 1-6, 6-4. Defending Champion Jaroslav Drobny of Egypt turned back Savitt, 6-4, 6-2, 6-3.

So the final, scheduled for tomorrow will pit Cuculli, who never has won any Major international honors, against the stocky Drobny, a smooth-stroking former Czechoslovakian Davis Cupper.

The veteran outfielder had remained in Illinois after the Cardinals' return here to avoid the summons. He said he had hoped for a reconciliation with his wife — his third.

A suit for divorce was filed by Mrs. Mary Kathryn Slaughter.

Yanks Short Seven Players Who Opened Season in 1950

St. Louis, April 14.—(AP)—Enos Slaughter returned to St. Louis today to play with the St. Louis Cardinals against the Browns — and promptly was served with a summons in a divorce case.

The veteran outfielder had remained in Illinois after the Cardinals' return here to avoid the summons. He said he had hoped for a reconciliation with his wife — his third.

A suit for divorce was filed by Mrs. Mary Kathryn Slaughter.

New York, April 14.—(AP)—Seven Yankees who played in the 1950 season against the Red Sox will be missing when New York launches the 1951 baseball campaign against Boston in Yankee Stadium Tuesday.

They are Tommy Henrich, now a Yankee coach; Johnny Lindell, Dick Wakefield, Don Johnson, Jim Delsing, Bobby Brown and Al Martin.

Their center fielder, Duke Snider, could become one of the game's outstanding stars this year. The only new manager in the National League is Marty Marion, who succeeded Eddie Dyer at the St. Louis helm. Marty expects to play a little shortstop when the weather warms up. Jimmie Dykes has taken over from storied Connie Mack the stewardship of Philadelphia's hopeless Athletics.

Tuesday's American League schedule finds the Boston Red Sox opening against the Yankees at the stadium here, with Cleveland playing at Detroit, Chicago at St. Louis, and Washington at Philadelphia in a night game.

In the National League, Philadelphia opens at Brooklyn, New York at Boston, Cincinnati at Chicago, and St. Louis at Pittsburgh.

SONIC TRIUMPHS AS MILTIE FAILS

Repertoire Boosts Derby Stock By Winning Chesapeake Stakes

New York, April 14.—(AP)—Sonic, a rambling black colt from the vast King Ranch in Texas, set the upstart Uncle Miltie in his place by winning the $27,500 Experimental Handicap No. 2 today before a yelling crowd of 40,351.

It was an amazing upset. J. J. Colando's Uncle Miltie had soundly thrashed other top three-year-olds last Monday to make himself the top horse in the early Kentucky Derby calculations. Today's crowd had backed him down to an odds - on 7 to 20. But Uncle Miltie let them down badly and finished eighth in the field of ten.

Jumbo nosed out the Phantom farm's Nullity in a tight photo for the place. Nullity took the show by a length before Jack Amiel's Serois. Eight of the starters were Derby candidates.

Sonic, which had won his only other 1951 start, returned a healthy $28.80, $11.50 and $7.00 across the board.

Jumbo paid even better for place, a fat $60.60, and $23.40, while Nullity not eligible for the Derby, returned $6.90 to show.

Mrs. Nora Mikell's Repertoire shoved his nose first over the finish of the Chesapeake Stakes today and into the Kentucky Derby picture.

The three-year-old chestnut won his third straight stakes of the year by whiskers over Hampton Stable's Altered. Two lengths back was T. G. May's Whirling Bat.

Repertoire took the lead soon after the break and never was headed before 19,703 fans who made him 3-2 favorite. They got back $5 for $2 at the payoff windows.

LOCKE TRIUMPHS
Johannesburg, South Africa, April 14.—(AP)—South Africa's Bobby Locke defeated Australian Champion Norman Von Nida, 11 and 9, in a 144-hole challenge match concluded in the rain today. Locke received $2,700 for his victory. Von Nida got $1,350.

Girl Grapplers Headline Twin Bill On Kallio's Mat Card Here Tuesday

into serious training. Making her ring debut in Minneapolis last fall, Miss Barattini became an immediate hit although she lost the match. Her first big win was over Nell Stewart in the Boston Garden Christmas charity show. To date, she has had better than 70 matches, winning most of them.

Miss Lavern, Canton, Ohio, has wrestled here several times, and her type of work insures her opponent of a rough night.

Both matches will have time limits of an hour and 15 minutes with two falls to win.

Bill Barney, West Monroe, will referee both matches. The first event goes on at 8:15 o'clock.

Kallio said admission prices will be $1.50 for ringside reserves, $1 for general admission and children.

COUPLE OF BROTHER ACTS
New York.—(AP)—Martin and Bob Biles of California and Bob and Ross Hume of Michigan are the only brothers to have won NCAA track titles. The Cochran brothers of Mississippi A&M and Indiana came close to duplicating this feat. C. S. Cochran won the 440 in 1922 and 1923. Brother Roy was a close second in the 1941 low hurdles for Indiana.

The appearance of the girls will give Twin City mat customers a chance to see the newest sensation of the ring, Miss Barattini, also called the "richest of lady wrestlers," and Miss Lavern who claims to own the only cauliflower ear among wrestlers of her sex.

Miss Barattini has been wrestling less than a year and already is being considered as the possible successor to World Champion Mildred Burke.

Miss Barattini, who had planned a career as a singer, was a spectator at a wrestling event in her home town of Baltimore early last June. Ladies were in action. Miss Barattini became angered at their foul tactics, declaring she could do better. So she made her big decision.

She contacted Billy Wolfe, the man who manages Mildred Burke. He agreed to manage her, and she immediately went

NORTHEAST LOOP ADOPTS SCHEDULE

West Monroe, Bastrop, Uria, Rayville In Pre-Season Games Today

The West Monroe White Sox drew the opening game in the Northeast Louisiana Baseball League, at a meeting of loop executives here Saturday afternoon, with Mangham to furnish the visiting team May 13.

After the opening teams launch the season, Bastrop plays at Winnsboro and Rayville goes to Uria, May 14.

Other games marked for the early round are: May 16; Mangham at Rayville; May 17, West Monroe at Winnsboro and Uria at Bastrop; May 20, West Monroe at Rayville and Bastrop at Mangham; May 21, Winnsboro at Uria.

Unwilling to wait for the season to open before testing the mettle of the players, four team managers have already set up exhibition schedules.

Today at 2:30, Rayville tangles with Manager Hal Willis' White Sox at Cloyd's Park, while Uria plays host to the Bastrop Barons at 3 o'clock.

Fred Minard, president of the LaSalle Producers Club in Uria, said his manager this year is Bill "Slew" Walters. The Producers will play in West Monroe, as soon as Rayville and the White Sox have finished their two-game exhibition series.

Larry Fox, president of the Northeast League, said that according to the adopted schedule, every team plays 30 games. Clubs will be limited to 17 players when the rosters become official, after the season gets underway.

An all-star game will be played early in July, with players to be taken from the three southernmost teams for one lineup, and from the north teams on the opposing club.

Those present at the meeting in the Hotel Frances were: Maynard Chambers and C. S. "Pop" Simpson of Rayville; Mose Bayles and Hal Willis of West Monroe; Fred Minard and Lester Burke of Uria; Johnny Collins of Bastrop; Charles Towers of West Monroe, and Fox of Ruston.

Towers, who is secretary of the League, is the one who set off the initial spark in organizing the amateur loop almost two months ago.

Vandy's Netters Lose To Tulane

Nashville, Tenn., April 14.—(AP)—Tulane's tennis team, well-staffed with sophomore talent, handed Vanderbilt its first defeat today, 7-2.

Alan Wickersham of Tulane bested Vanderbilt's Steve Potts, 7-5, 6-4, in the top singles match of the day. It was Pott's first defeat in three starts this year.

Summary:
Alan Wickersham (T) beat Steve Potts 7-5, 6-4; Don Merritt (T) beat John Bell Keeble 6-4, 7-5; Ellery Carver (T) beat Gordon Long 6-1, 6-3; Walter Harris (T) beat Kermit Stengel 6-1, 6-3; Horacio Amengual (T) beat Harry Corson, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2; John Loomis (V) beat Bob Hoffman 6-0, 7-5; Wickersham - Merritt (T) beat Potts - Loomis 3-6, 6-2, 6-3; Corson - Keeble (V) beat Harris - Amengual 6-3, 6-2; Carver - Hoffman (T) beat Long-Willis Richardson 6-1, 7-5.

COTTON STATES SET FOR SEASON OPENERS

GOLDEN JUBILEE CURTAIN - RAISERS SLATED TUESDAY

Monroe Opens At Home With Natchez; Many New Faces Over Circuit

By J. P. Friend
Blytheville, Ark., April 14.—(Special.) The Spring rehearsing about completed, the eight Cotton States League clubs—Clarksdale, El Dorado, Greenville, Greenwood, Hot Springs, Monroe, Natchez and Pine Bluff—await the umpires' "play ball" Tuesday night for the opening of the Golden Jubilee anniversary season.

Defending champion Pine Bluff takes on rival Hot Springs, winner of the 1950 playoff series. Monroe, runner-up last season, clashes with Natchez, fourth place finisher. Clarksdale is teamed with Greenwood, while Greenville tangles with El Dorado.

The housecleaning broom has been kept quite active since the curtain fell on the last campaign. Many changes have been made within the front offices and player rosters.

Curtis Kinard is the new owner of the El Dorado Oilers. Tony Kasso has taken over the general manager duties, replacing Harry Brandt who doubled as owner-manager in '50. Robert A. (Bob) Murphy succeeds Woodrow Day as president of the Clarksdale Planters, under new owner George Stein of Shelby.

Miss Jack Lewis, last year with Ponca City, has been brought in by the parent Brooklyn Dodgers to manage the business affairs of the Greenwood club. Owen Martinez, who served in that capacity for the Class C Dodgers, was promoted to Fort Worth, Tex., of the Texas League. Jim Elder, former league umpire, has moved into the front office of Hot Springs as business manager.

Remaining club personnel includes Jake Stein, owner, and Bob Truitt, business manager, Greenville; Samuel Garrett, president, Hot Springs; Bonneau Peters, president, Paul Maxwell, business manager, Monroe; Dorris Ballew, president, Tom Glennon, business manager, Natchez; Sidney L. Good, president, George F. Merrick, business manager, Pine Bluff.

Al Haraway, Helena, fourteenth in the long line of presidents since the circuit was organized January 12, 1902, starts his third term in the highest executive's chair.

Old Gag Inadequate
The popular vaudeville gag, "who's on first," just isn't adequate this Spring. Score card vendors should do a landlord business to help the fans get acquainted with the current crop of players.

Without exception, all clubs are starting from scratch with practically new rosters, with which to mould teams. That is especially true at El Dorado and Greenville. The new owner bosses hired Bill McGee, veteran minor league and major league player, who has drawn heavily from the ranks of the Jackson, Miss., club, former member of the non-existent Southeastern League and holder of the most seasons in the Cotton States League. Mel Nunes, second baseman, Eddie Zabek, shortstop, and Bill Lewis, catcher, served with the Solons in 1950. Bill Fisher, third baseman, and Paul Hendricks, pitcher, were bought from Selma, Ala., another Southeastern League member. Where Jimmy Morgan, shortstop with the Oilers in '49, will be placed is a question, as Manager McGee is slated for first. The outfield and pitching jobs are to be earned by newcomers.

Carlos (Arky) Biggs, new Greenville skipper, has only Pitcher Robert (Bob) Wiltse, a promising southpaw, as a nucleus for his Bucks. But the situation isn't too bleak, as revealed by rookie hopefuls during the training days. The infield looks steady with three posts apparently nailed down, at least for the present. Biggs, a vet of 15 years experience, will take care of second. Bob McDonald, from the Florida-International League, is at third; Mike Boettcher, late of the Rio Grande loop, at short. J. W. Mayo, hometown product with previous trials with Greenville and Pine Bluff, has an edge over 17-year-old John Pickett, Arkansas semi-pro, at first. Outfielders include George Yancy, a converted pitcher with Dallas last year, and Marv Cato, with Borger of the W. Texas-N. Mexico league in '50. A prominent college athlete, not yet signed, is counted on for the other garden. Catchers listed are Lane Cullums and L. T. Lasley. Pitchers on hand are Calvin Bunch, Atlanta semi-pro; "Red" Kinney, and Carlos Cowan, a Cuban last season with Brownsville, Tex. Muskegon, Michigan, has promised two chunkers for Eddie Sudol and Wally Berger.

Al Mazur, returning for another year with Monroe, lost many of his star Sports and is counting on parent Shreveport for his material. Carl Tucker, third sacker, and Catcher Virgil Bivens, and the pilot are the only 1950 listees. Tucker barged five hits against Alexandria of the Evangeline League, April 8. Most promising of the rookie crop is John Paul Jones, 180-pounder fresh out of T. C. U. He is a first baseman. Bob Hamric, who hit .312 for Del Rio in the Rio Grande Valley League last year, has shown power, along with Bobby Greene, Park High of Shreveport. The pitching needs testing.

Indians Boast Pitchers

Natchez appears strongest on the mound with John Miskulin, Larry Fox, Donald Rodd and Roy Jayne returning. They won 57 games between them in 1950. Miskulin leading with 17. Manager George Torres, who replaced Dick Atkins, probably will be on the infield along with such stars as Bill Jones (.303); and George Ruzina, all-star third baseman who batted .314 in '50. Jim Gilbert (.345) is an outfield returnee. Tony Zini, catcher, will be available after classes turn out at the University of Arkansas. Remainder of the club must come from the material sent from Birmingham.

Robert (Bob) Richards steps into the vacant shoes of Harry Chosen at Pine Bluff and admits he probably won't know what his Judge personnel will be until the St. Louis Browns make some decisions when the wedding time comes at nearby Grider Field, where the Brownie farm hands are training. Rosey (Ben) Cantrell, leading hitter with .363, is due to be back, which is gladdening news. Pitcher Bill David, who won 10 games last season, is due to join Cantrell.

The same situation prevails in the Greenwood lair, awaiting assignments from Brooklyn. Jack Champlin and Vincent Bache, holdover pitchers; Don Brate, who won nine and lost two with Ponca City in the K. O. M. League; Joe Roe, nephew of the famous "Preacher" Roe, Brooklyn star; Robert Gates, Hattiesburg; Marvin Freeman, Atlanta, Ga.; and Roger Rossler, of California, are prospective members. Rafael (Chico) Fernandez, Cuban, is the leading catching candidate. Manager Lou Rochelli and Santos Luberio are expected to retain their infield berths.

Over at Clarksdale Jim Pruett, who caught for Nashville and managed St. Petersburg, Fla., in 1950, will try his hand at elevating the Clarksdale Planters. He succeeds a league favorite, Chet Morgan, who has retired from the game after a glamorous career. Pruett has inherited Dave Dick, third baseman, Willie Oberschmidt, outfielder, and George Foster, shortstop, from the seventh place '50 outfit. Pete Christy, power hitter, formerly with Pine Bluff, has been brought in along with Hugh Claze, second baseman; Catcher John Crocker, and Jack Sinott, outfielder, with experience. Several rookies have been outstanding in training.

Rex Carr, new pilot of the Hot Springs Bathers, is looking to the Chicago White Sox for his material. Only players left over from last year are Tony Gubiezza, pitcher, and Erv Rabka, infielder. Neither saw much service in 1950.

Vic Pierson, Colorado Springs, Mo., appears likely at first base. Tom Galli, optioned by Sacramento, is the probable shortstop, with another rookie, Bob Carpenter, tabbed for third. Of the rookie crop Don Fiebler, Jim Rentschler, Robert Simonetti, outfielders; and Pitchers Pat Waters, Robert Hutchinson, and Memphis Jim Hartley have been outstanding. There is a possibility that Pel Austin, a star of the '49 club will be reassigned to the Bathers. Other personnel will come from the other two clubs in training at the Spa, Colorado Springs and Waterloo.

Loyola Net Team Beats Springhill
New Orleans, April 14.—(AP.) Loyola of the South won its fourth Gulf States Conference tennis match of the season today, defeating Spring Hill College of Mobile, Ala., 7-0.

Loyola didn't lose a set in defeating Spring Hill, running up its seventh straight victory in a streak begun last season.

Summary:
Ken Crumley (L) beat Larry McGinn 6-1, 6-1; Mel Bodle (L) beat Jack McCabe 6-1, 6-2; Bobby Hanbert (L) beat Y. Howie 6-2, 6-2; Reggie Garcia (L) beat Dick Conner 6-1, 6-1; Ernie Garcia (L) beat Al LaSalle 6-1, 6-2; Bodle-Hanberg (L) beat McGinn - McCabe 6-0, 6-4; Gene Ashby-R. Garcia (L) beat Howie-Conner 6-3, 6-3.

EVEN PAR GIVES TEXAS GIRL LEAD

Alice Bauer Sets Pace In Weathervane; Favored Zaharias Is 12th.

Dallas, April 14.—(AP.) Alice Bauer, diminutive blonde from Midland, Tex., shot an even par 75 today to take the lead in the first 18-hole round of the $17,000, 144-hole women's cross country Weathervane Golf Tournament.

Little Miss Bauer, who is only 5 feet 2 and weighs 105 pounds, was the only player in a field of 44 able to match par on the windy, dusty, 6,100-yard Lakewood Country Club course.

Tying for second place at 77 were Betty Jameson of San Antonio and Patt Berg of Minneapolis.

Volunteers Lose Pair To Georgia
Knoxville, Tenn., April 14.—(AP.) A double victory over Georgia today sent Tennessee's baseball squad way out front in the Southeastern Conference standings with a record of 7 wins against a single loss.

The Vols took the first game by a comfortable 6-1 margin, but had to come from behind in the sixth inning to win the seven-inning nightcap 2-1.

Memphis State Coach Ired Over Detroit Tiger's Raid
Memphis, Tenn., April 14.—(AP.) The Memphis State College football coach, burned because the Detroit Tiger baseball club signed one of his top players, says scouts shouldn't be allowed to come on the campuses.

"It's a terrible condition when guys can come on your campus and lure your athletes away from their college educations," Ralph Hatley said after the Tigers signed Charles (Chick) King yesterday.

"It isn't fair for major league clubs to pull a stunt like this," he added. "We have gone to considerable trouble to develop King as a college football player. And just when he ought to be of some real help to us, Detroit sent a man to our campus to grab him."

The Tigers sent the Paris, Tenn., youngster to Williamsport of the Eastern League. A freshman, he was a sensational high school football player.

Tide Evens Series With Maroons, 5-3
State College, Miss., April 14.—(AP.) Alabama scored four runs in the first inning and then went on to edge Mississippi State 5 to 3 today to even a two game baseball series.

State won yesterday's game 17 to 10.

Al Lary and Lee Williams hooked up in a tight hurling duel with Lary getting the win. However, Williams settled down after a shaky first inning when he allowed four hits and only gave up three singles during the last eight innings.

apolis—while one stroke back was Louise Suggs of Carrollton, Ga. Babe Didrickson Zaharias of Tampa, Fla., the year's leading money winner and defending champion in the Weathervane, took a big 83. This put her in 12th place. Mrs. Zaharias, the tournament favorite said: "Everything I did went into something. I played poorly."

Marlene Bauer, sister of Alice, who led through the first nine holes with a 37, became ill on number 12 hole and finished with a 44 on the back nine for an 81. Miss Bauer has been suffering from a virus infection.

Tied for fifth place were Mrs. H. E. Riedel of Dallas an amateur; Betty Bush of Hammond, Ind., and Betsy Rawls of Austin, Tex., each with an 80. The second 18 holes will be played tomorrow. This is the first leg of the Weathervane which moves to Pebble Beach, Calif., for the second 36 holes; then to Indianapolis for the third, and to New York for finals.

SPORTS NIP TYLER; EL DORADO HERE TODAY

MONROE DOWNS BIG STATE CLUB BY 6 TO 2 EDGE

Local Pitching Looks Good, Batting Comes Through For Mazurmen

The Monroe Sports looked plenty ready to open their Cotton States League campaign last night as they socked the class B Tyler Oilers of the Big State League, 6 to 2, in an exhibition game at Legion Memorial Stadium here.

This afternoon, the Men of Mazur will get a taste of action from a league rival, meeting the El Dorado Oilers at 3 o'clock in a final exhibition scrap here before settling down to await Natchez in the league opener Tuesday night.

Three Monroe hurlers tamed Tyler on four hits last night, while the Sports came through with eight hits, one of them a two-run homer by Bob Hamric and a pair of solid triples by Johnny Paul Jones, the rookie sensation from T. C. U.

Jimmy Clark, David McKenzie, and Bill Knoke shared the mound work for Monroe with McKenzie, a Monroe product, looking mighty impressive as he allowed no runs and no hits in the three innings he worked. McKenzie was the winning pitcher.

Clark, the starting hurler, had trouble in the first inning with his control, three bases on balls contributing to both Tyler runs, but from then on Clark was easily the master, going four innings. Knoke pitched the last two innings.

Tyler used three pitchers, Charlie Davis, Fernandez, and McLaughlin with the Cuban, Fernandez, being charged with the loss. He left the mound after successive blows that included Hamric's homer and Jones' second triple.

Tyler got his two runs in the first inning on bases on balls to Joe Duffield, Nick Gregory, and Merv Connors with a lone single by Akins sandwiched between.

Connors' free pass sent Gomez, who had forced Duffield at second, home with the first run. Akins scored as Neuerdorf forced Connors.

The Sports opened their scoring in the second frame. Jones was hit by a pitched ball, went to third a Bobby Greene single, and scored when George Andrews hit into a double play.

Another Monroe run was tallied in the third, tying up the score, when Dick Anderson walked, stole second, and came home on Billy Wynns' single into right field.

A Hamric double, followed by Jones' triple into left field, scored the winning run for the Sports in the sixth inning, but just for good measure Monroe added three more in the eighth.

One was out in the eighth when Wynns walked. Hamric promptly poled a 350-foot homer over the left field fence, his second circuit clout in spacious Legion Stadium during the spring exhibition battles. Jones followed with a triple that ended Fernandez' stay on the mound. Greene pounded a high fly deep into right field, Jones scoring after the putout.

Peacock's Again Rewards Sports

It'll be wrist watches and 100-dollar bills for the Monroe Sports again this year, thanks to Peacock's Jewelers of Monroe.

Ralph Marx, manager of Peacock's here, last night announced his firm once again will reward every Monroe Sport hitting a home run, or if a pitcher, hurling a shut out game at Legion Memorial Stadium in regular Cotton States League play with a Bulova wrist watch.

To any Sport player hitting the illuminated Peacock's clock in left center field, the jewelry company will pay $100 in cash.

All shut outs or homers must be obtained in home games. Not more than one watch will be presented to any one player.

Several Monroe players collected Bulovas from Peacock's last year, the first time such an offer has ever been made here, but batters have yet to get the range on Peacock's big clock although Bob Hamric, Monroe's new outfielder, came very close in a recent exhibition game, however.

Neverdorf, Duffield and Connors; Andrews, Van Winkle and Jones. Left on bases — Tyler 9; Monroe 3. Innings pitched — By Clark 4 with 2 runs 4 hits; By Davis 5 with 2 runs 4 hits; By McKenzie 2-1/3 with 4 runs 4 hits; By McLaughlin 2-3 with 0 runs 0 hits; By Knoke 2 with 0 runs 0 hits.

Redlegs Send Catcher Les Peden Back To Springfield

Indianapolis, Ind., April 14. —(AP) — The Cincinnati Reds' roster was pruned to 27 today—just two over the May 17 limit—with the announcement that Catcher Les Peden was being returned to the Springfield club of the International League.

Springfield, which lost Peden to the Reds via the draft route, will send him in turn to Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast League.

10-GAME SLATE FOR IRISH NINE

St. Matthew's Opens Baseball Season With Mangham Here Tuesday

Coach Jay Broussard of St. Matthew's Parochial School last night announced a ten-game baseball schedule for his Fighting Irish who will also participate in one tournament. The Irish open their spring campaign here Tuesday against the Dragons of Mangham High School.

The Irish have been busy with their training routine for the past two weeks, and Coach Broussard is looking forward to fairly good St. Matthew's representation on the diamond this year.

Angelo Danna and Nick Miller are tagged to handle the Irish pitching, and infielder Johnny Accardo is also due to see service on the mound. Frank Tichell appears to have the catching assignment sewed up.

About the only other jobs that seem to be cinched are Pat Jenevett at shortstop and Vince Danna at third base. First base will be settled between Theo DeGruy and V. P. Danna, while second base will be shared by Ralph Morgan and Johnny Accardo.

The outfield setup still hasn't been settled, but leading candidates are Bucky LaPietra, Julius Fontana, Anthony Corro and Carl Shambo.

The St. Matthew's schedule:

April 17 — Mangham, 3 p.m., here.
April 20 — Baskin, 2 p.m., there.
April 22 — Clarks, 3 p.m., there.

Softball Loops Meet This Week

Reorganization meetings of three softball circuits here, the Civic Club League, City League and the Industrial League, are scheduled for this week, Jack Hesketh, Monroe recreation director, announced yesterday.

The Civic Club League meets tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock at the Recreation Center; the Industrial League meets Thursday night at 7 o'clock, and the City League session is scheduled for 8 o'clock Thursday night.

Managers of all teams are due to be present at the meetings to adopt playing rules and discuss schedules.

Laird Hurls 1-Hit Bulldog Victory

Crowville, La., April 14.—(Special)—Billy Joe Laird hurled one-hit ball for the Crowville High School Bulldogs as the locals defeated Gilbert High, 12-0, Friday. The Bulldogs got to Don Brocato, Gilbert starter, for six hits and six runs in three innings, and then worked Charles Ezell for six runs on five hits in four frames.

Laird and Ralph Lewis, catcher, led the hitting for Crowville with three blows apiece, one of Lewis' being a double. Barton, Gilbert catcher, spoiled Laird's bid for a no-hitter by getting the lone hit.

Crowville plays at Fort Necessity Tuesday and then meets Mangham here next Friday.

THIS WEEK IN BUSINESS

By Richard Fiske

New York, April 14.—

Business and industry went ahead with production and expansion plans this week, ignoring the possibility of peace moves and the prospect of stiff materials controls.

There was a re-awakening of bullish tendencies on the New York stock change. Automobiles were rolling off assembly lines at an increasing rate.

Crude oil production was at a record high. Steel mills topped their theoretical capacity for the sixth straight week although the rate was down slightly from the previous week.

There were some dark spots in the picture, however. Workers in several sections were idle due to labor troubles or conversion or business declines which were partly seasonal.

The New York Central Railroad laid off several thousand of its 110,000 workers in 11 states. Business volume is off, the road said. The movement of hard coal is almost "dead" due to seasonal fluctuations. Miscellaneous freight loadings are down.

Westinghouse Electric Corporation furnished 4,000 workers at its Sharon, Pa., transformer division until the C. I. O. Electrical Workers Union agrees to halt a series of unauthorized wildcat strikes.

Radio and television manufacturers ordered temporary lay offs to balance inventories or convert facilities to defense production.

Meanwhile, leaders in business and industry paid little attention to political moves or diplomatic maneuvers as they stuck to their job of supplying the nation with materials.

They just wouldn't be quoted, for instance, on the effects of the removal of Gen. Douglas MacArthur or the belief of British officials that this improved chances for peace with Red China.

Most of them thought any forthcoming peace talks would have only minor effects on the defense economy.

Even a negotiated peace in Korea, they added, would not interrupt the huge rearmament program.

The stiffer controls announced by the national production authority, they said, simply emphasize the increasingly rapid switch from a civilian economy.

The NPA's materials control plan, similar to one used during World War II, becomes effective July 1. It will detour scarce steel, copper and aluminum to defense and essential civilian needs.

The indications are that the entire economy is being geared for quick conversion to a war footing if and when the need arises.

In the same voluntary manner the industry employed after the start of Korean hostilities, the nation's manufacturers needed no urging this week to continue their high production.

Federal reserve board figures attested to the fine record. Industrial production climbed to a new post-war high in March, the federal reserve said.

It reached 223 per cent of the 1935-39 average, compared with 221 per cent in January and February and 218 per cent back in December.

The total production of all goods and services in the first quarter jumped to an annual rate of $316,000,000,000, a $16,000,000,000 gain over the final quarter of 1950.

Only about one-fourth of the increase was a result of real output, however. Government economists said inflation caused the rest.

Inflationary factors were very much in motion during the week. In New York the Fifth Avenue Coach Company asked for authority to raise fares to 15 cents from the current 12 cents.

The Long Island Railroad, which carries hundreds of thousands of New York commuters daily was awarded an increase of 20 per cent in commutation fares and 12½ per cent in one-way tickets.

There was one item that was definitely down—hard coal. Prices were cut 20 cents to 85 cents a ton at the mines by leading producers. The reductions, however, were regarded as seasonal discounts designed to induce householders to stock up during the summer months.

Dun and Bradstreet's wholesale food price index leveled off after three successive declines. Retail meat prices in New York were reported unchanged for the third consecutive week by the city market department.

Consumer spending was reported about unchanged through last Wednesday despite widespread promotions, according to Dun and Bradstreet's reports.

The federal reserve board, which reported on the first week in April, said department store sales fell below the year-ago level for the second consecutive week.

Sales in that week dropped nine per cent under a year ago in contrast to an average gain of 14 per cent during the January 1-April 7 period.

The drop, the board explained, was due in part to the fact that Easter fell on April 9 last year and this year on March 25.

The statistics for the week showed output of industry at its now familiar high rate—well above a year ago. In some instances there was a little slackening from the previous week but they were natural losses due to the tremendous production that has been maintained so long.

Steel production was at 102.3 per cent of rated capacity, down one-tenth from the previous week but way above the 97.8 of a year ago. Freight carloadings were down

COTTON

New York, April 14.—Cotton futures, following early steadiness, gave ground under profit taking today. During initial dealings and shortly thereafter trade buying supported the list but when this petered out prices were a bit lower. Trading volume was the slowest for a short session in many weeks.

Futures closed 70 cents a bale lower to 25 cents higher than the previous close.

CUB SCOUTS PAY RAILROAD VISIT

Are Taken Through Roundhouse By Missouri Pacific Officials

More than 50 cub scouts, with their den mothers and leaders, were taken to the Missouri Pacific roundhouse Thursday afternoon to observe train operations. This was in connection with their study in April of the working of American railroads.

The groups making the trip were troops Nos. 31, 131, and 231. They went and came in their family cars and enjoyed an afternoon of pleasurable excitement.

John W. Treadwell, superintendent of the local division of the Missouri Pacific lines, with E. A. Porter, Jr., and others escorted the youngsters. They showed them how engines were raised above the tracks so that repairs can be made; explained how and why the trains are at times sidetracked.

The boys were given opportunity to ring the bell and blow the whistle and after a careful inspection, ice cream was served to the Cubs, their den mothers and cubmasters in the group.

Woman's Body Is Buried Under Shed

Santa Barbara, Calif., April 13.—The well-to-do wife of a retired railroad telegrapher was found today buried under a chicken house at the rear of their home.

Sheriff Jack Ross said the husband, Paul Hetherington, 50, told him he had buried his wife, Betty, 52, there but said someone else had killed her.

Mrs. Hetherington has been missing since March 10.

Her husband pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of drunkenness and was sentenced to 10 days in jail. Ross said a murder complaint will be issued against him. The sheriff said Mrs. Hetherington's naked body was found lying on its side and wrapped in a tarpaulin under more than a foot of dirt. Buried with it was a suitcase filled with women's clothes and costume jewelry.

RELEASE STUDENT ON $10,000 BOND

Colvin Argues Self Defense In Fatal Shooting Of Roommate

Tuscaloosa, Ala., April 14.—A University of Alabama senior was released on $10,000 bond Friday after testifying he killed his freshman roommate when the other student charged him with a knife.

Inferior Court Judge Eugene V. Bailey announced the decision after two days of testimony and argument at a preliminary hearing on first degree murder charges against James L. Colvin, 24.

The student was bound over to the Tuscaloosa county grand jury, which meets April 23.

Colvin testified in a tense crowded courtroom today that he fired at Jerome Luther Veazey, 27, his close friend, in self defense. He was the last witness at the lengthy arraignment proceedings.

The handsome, wavy haired student testified that Veazey attacked him at the climax to an argument that began over a noisy Saturday night party the older student gave in the apartment they shared.

The gunplay took place on the following Sunday afternoon, April 1, on a sidewalk near their rooms. Colvin said he and Veazey had never spoken a cross word until the sudden flare-up. He said Veazey had been drinking and threatened to kill him as the quarrel mounted.

The two students were both World War II veterans. They had been associated with the same college fraternity, and visited in one another's homes. They spent a week between semesters on a holiday at Daytona Beach, Fla.

Veazey was a university freshman.

While Colvin told his story from the witness stand, members of their two families sat at the same table, almost rubbing shoulders. They coldly ignored one another. Colvin said he was on the way with a friend to see about placing Veazey under a peace bond when he saw Veazey approaching on a bicycle.

His companion shouted a warning. "Look out, Jimmy, here he comes." "I whirled and faced Jack," the student related. "He had a knife upraised in his hand. It had a bright blade that was shining in the sun. It had a long blade.

"I said, 'Jack, I've got a gun and I don't want to hurt you. Don't come any farther.' He came on. "I fired one shot to miss. I shot low to the right, intending to scare him. He kept coming. I fired two fast shots. There was no sign that he'd been hit. Then I fired again. "Then I ran down the street holding, 'Ambulance, ambulance.'"

Have Right To Sue For Gambling Loss

New Orleans, April 14.—The U. S. fifth circuit court of appeals here ruled today that two Minnesota children may sue to recover $83,959 they claimed their father lost gambling in Mississippi.

Chief Judge Joseph Hutcheson wrote the court's opinion, which reversed a ruling by the southern division of the federal district court of Mississippi.

The suit was entered by M. P. Weinstein as guardian of Maher Jacob Weinstein and Judith Ann Weinstein, minors of Minneapolis, against Seaview, Inc., a corporation, and against Eddy Wroten, T. W. Richardson, P. F. Marling and Grover Graham.

The children's suit charged that their father went to Biloxi, Miss., from Missouri in 1944 and established a mercantile business. They claimed he began frequenting a gambling house, three miles west of Biloxi.

They claimed he lost $83,959 at the gambling establishment and introduced checks dated from Sept. 21, 1944 to June 6, 1946. They asked permission to sue to recover the money.

"Jimmy, you win," Colvin said the dying student told him.

Colvin testified under cross examination that he and Veazey had a fist fight because of the party. Later he locked Veazey out of the room, and he said his friend tried to get back in while armed with a butcher knife.

Colvin is the son of a Talladega, Ala., hardware merchant. Veazey was the step-son of J. Everett Rogers, manager of the Greenville, Miss., Chamber of Commerce.

State witnesses testified at the start of the hearing yesterday that Veazey was shot five times, once in the back.

MILITARY STAFF GETS ADDITION

Sgt. Robert Palmer Will Instruct College R. O. T. C. Cadets

Most recent addition to the military staff at Northeast Louisiana State College is M-Sgt. Robert Palmer, military police corps, regular army. Sergeant Palmer will instruct college R. O. T. C. cadets in all branch subjects.

Sergeant Palmer was ordered to his new post from Fort Bliss, Tex., where he served as a first sergeant, military police supervisor and an anti-aircraft artillery anti-weapon chief.

For the past eight years he has been with the military police, both at home and abroad. His record includes fifteen months of overseas duty during World War II. The sergeant was attached to the army air force and remained in the China-Burma-India theater from March 1944 until June 1945. Sergeant Palmer's first assignment as a member of the military police corps was at Camp Butler, N. C., a detention camp for German prisoners of war. After his tour of overseas duty he was reassigned to this unit.

A veteran of 22 years of service, the sergeant entered the army for the first time in 1925 at Fort Benning, Ga., where he was assigned to headquarters company, 2nd battalion, 29th infantry regiment. He was discharged in 1937, and remained a civilian for three years before reenlisting in 1940.

A native of Strawberry Plains, Tenn., Palmer is married and has one son, who served in the navy during World War II. Sergeant and Mrs. Palmer reside at 4212 DeSiard.

GAY HOUSE PARTY ENDS WITH DEATH

Cocoa, Fla., April 14.—A physician killed his young wife and wounded the man in bed with her to end a gay weekend house-party shortly before dawn today.

Mrs. Wilma Strasser, 31, lying nude in the bed, was shot twice and died instantly, said Sheriff H. T. Williams.

James R. Howie, 27, civilian technician at the guided missile proving ground near here, was critically wounded in the head.

Dr. Hans Strasser, 40, Broward county health director, admitted the shooting, officers said. He was held in the county jail at Titusville pending a coroner's inquest.

"I shot my wife and this woman's husband," chief of Police Wayne Headley of Cocoa Beach quoted the doctor as saying when he surrendered.

Mr. and Mrs. Howie were weekend guests of the Strassers at their tiny beach cottage. The living room and bedroom were scenes of wild disarray when officers arrived.

Ashtrays were filled to overflowing and drinks had been spilled on the floor of the living room. In the bedroom, clothes and towels were strewn about. The bed and floor were soaked with blood.

Dr. Strasser and Mrs. Howie drove to Cocoa, 10 miles away, to buy cigarettes and returned to the cottage about 5 a.m., Mrs. Howie told investigators.

They found the living room empty. Strasser then entered the bedroom, she said, and found his wife, nude, and Howie, fully clothed except for shoes, asleep in the bed. "He got a gun from somewhere in the bedroom and shot them," Mrs. Howie told sheriff's deputies.

The physician said he fired four shots with a 32-caliber pistol. Two struck Mrs. Strasser, the fatal bullet entering her face just left of the bridge of the nose. One missile lodged in the front of Howie's brain. And a fourth shot went wild. Howie's condition was described as critical and he was rushed to Jacksonville for brain surgery.

After the shooting Dr. Strasser asked for a gun so he could take his own life, Police Chief Headley said.

County Judge Vassar B. Carlton said an inquest would be postponed pending a formal report on Howie's condition. "He was a witness and we will need his testimony," the judge said.

The doctor took over as health supervisor six months ago. The Strassers' only child, Julie, 5, was visiting Mrs. Strasser's mother at Opelika at the time of the shooting. The Howies, whose home is in nearby Titusville, have two small children.

For a variety of fish dishes for a main dish serve: baked fish with creole sauce; creamed salmon or tuna; codfish cakes with tomato sauce; curried shrimp; lobster a la king.

3 Negroes Ask Entry At Tennessee U.

Knoxville, Tenn., April 14.—The application of four Knoxville Negroes for admission to the University of Tennessee must be decided on its merits in federal district court, three federal judges ruled today.

The Negroes had asked the three judges to order the university to admit them to its law and graduate schools on grounds that their constitutional rights were violated when they were denied admission.

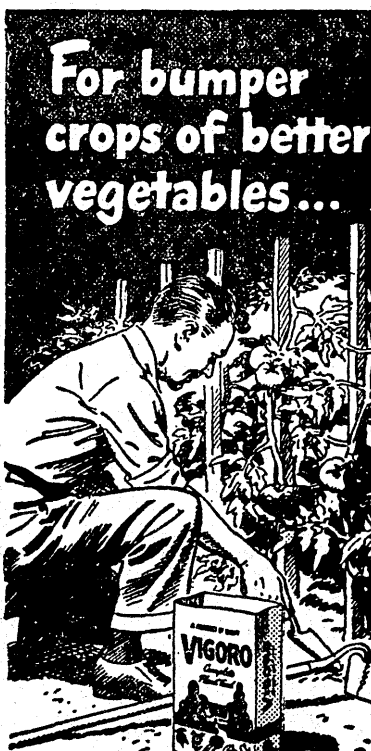

They contended U.T. refused to admit them solely on the basis of race and color. The three judges — Shackelford Miller Jr., of Louisville, Leslie R. Barr of Chattanooga, and Robert L. Taylor of Knoxville — ruled that the question before them was of "alleged discrimination" by the university against the Negroes "under the equal protection clause of the 14th amendment" to the U.S. constitution.

Accordingly, they said, the case is one for decision by Judge Taylor in federal district court here rather than by the three — judge tribunal.

The university argued that Tennessee constitutional provisions prohibiting Negroes from attending state-supported schools along with white students prevented it from admitting them.

The Negro applicants were Joseph H. Patterson, 28, Lincoln A. Blakeney, 29, Gene Mitchell Gray, 22, and Jack Alexander, 28.

Miss Arden Girault And William E. McDowell United In Marriage

Home Of Bride's Parents Is Scene Of Impressive Double-Ring Ceremony

An early spring wedding of simplicity and beauty was that which united Miss Arden Girault, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Girault, and William E. McDowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McDowell, Saturday April 7, in the home of the bride, 1404 Forsythe avenue of this city.

The bride and groom exchanged the vows of the impressive double-ring ceremony on the glassed-in living porch of the bride's home decorated with a background of green commando, white Easter lilies and fern. The room was illuminated only by candlelight.

The Rev. E. F. Hayward, retired minister of the Grace Episcopal Church, officiated at the home ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in the traditional ivory colored satin wedding gown, which was also worn by her two sisters in their wedding. The fitted waist was buttoned down the back with self-covered buttons and attached to a marquisette yoke. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a coronet. Her bridal bouquet was of white tulips and ivory satin streamers.

Mrs. David I. Garrett, Jr., sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She was wearing a white dress of mousslin de soie. The skirt of the dress was appliqued with white roses and a touch of narrow green ribbon. She carried an arm bouquet of white tulips and green taffeta ribbon.

Mr. J. R. Hood served the groom as best man. Mrs. Girault, mother of the bride, wore a gown of olive green crepe. The mother of the groom, Mrs. W. M. McDowell, chose a navy blue lace model. White Easter lilies were used in lovely arrangements throughout the house except in the dining room where a beautiful arrangement of white stock, candytuft and ranunculus could be seen on the buffet.

The table was decorated by the bride's two aunts, Mrs. George M. Simon of Baton Rouge, and Mrs. Wallace Atkinson of Summit, Mississippi.

A beautifully decorated wedding cake in the center of the dining table was set off by streamers of white satin ribbon to the edge of the table where they were caught by distinctive nosegays of white stock and lace. The cake was banked with green fern and silver candelabra with composites of white tulips completing the decoration. The bride and groom cut their cake with a lovely silver cake knife, a family heirloom, belonging to Mrs. H. F. Madison, Jr. The bride chose as her going away outfit a stylish navy blue crepe and spring coat of shades of blue plaid. Her hat was a small close fitting straw. Her accessories were also of navy.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Linerick, Jr., of Little Rock, Ark., sister of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jones, Mr. Ray Brannon, Mrs. George M. Simon, all of Baton Rouge; Donald Dagle of Crowley, La.; Mr. Guy Smith of Houston, Texas; Mrs. Wallace Atkinson of Summit, Miss. Mrs. Carey Ellis, Jr., Mrs. W. L. Jones, Mrs. W. M. Gaines, and Mrs. Wilma Francis of Rayville.

Girl Scout News

A few days of sunshine, and every troop hurries to get in some of its long - postponed activities. Troop 20's cook - out, leaders report, was a huge success. Hiking to Bernstein Park, the girls cooked squaw corn, dividing up jobs in the real Girl Scout way. These soon - to fly - up Brownies have been writing letters to a troop in California and finding that it is fun to make friends with unseen Scouts.

Speaking of letters, Troop 27 has received a letter from far - away Pakistan, thanking them for the bags of school supplies which the troop contributed at the 1950 birthday program. It must give a feeling of one - worldness to get such letters. The writer explained that the supplies were distributed among the children, but that the bags were given to missionaries to enable them to carry books and supplies on long journeys.

In spite of threatening clouds, Troop 5 made up of seventh grade girls at Millsaps School, carried out its plan to visit the troop camp last Saturday. Mrs. Robert Ervin and Mrs. C. W. Thomas proved that they were not fair weather leaders only, and it didn't rain after all. Hiking along the river, exploring the campsite, making fires out of pine twigs, and even swinging on a grapevine swing were activities which the girls enjoyed. Like most other girls in intermediate troops, they look forward to an overnight when the weather is warmer.

Wonder what the girls would have thought if they could have looked in on an intermediate leaders' meeting Tuesday! In the backyard of the Scout house these leaders cooked delicious cherry cobbler on a reflector oven, said reflector being made of five cookie sheets and a few bolts. On a fire of coals two experienced leaders showed how to cook breadsticks and pioneer drumsticks (hamburger on a stick), and a third demonstration was cooking pancakes on a tin can stove, using a buddy burner for fuel - no chance for the fire to go out. From the enthusiasm shown by these leaders, we expect to hear of quite a bit of outdoor cooking in intermediate troops in the near future.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Miss Bonnie June Hearn, whose engagement is being announced by her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. John Elton Hearn, of Ruston, La., to Mr. Hebert Fisher, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram H. Fisher, Sr., of Greggton, Tex.

MISS BONNIE JUNE HEARN IS ENGAGED TO HEBERT FISHER, JR.

Rev. and Mrs. John Elton Hearn of Ruston, Louisiana, announce the engagement of their daughter, Bonnie June, of Port Arthur, Texas, and Mr. Hebert Fisher, Jr., of Scott, Louisiana, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram H. Fisher, Sr., of Greggton, Texas.

Miss Hearn and Mr. Fisher will be married in June in Trinity Methodist Church, Ruston, Louisiana. The bride - elect's father will officiate at the ceremony and she will be given in marriage by her brother, Dr. John E. Hearn, Jr. Miss Hearn is a graduate of Louisiana Polytechnic Institute and is now teaching in the Port Arthur Independent School district. Her fiancé was also graduated from Louisiana Polytechnic Institute. He is employed by Baker Oil Tools. Mrs. Marvin Cappel, Jr., sister of the bride - elect, will be Miss Hearn's matron of honor, and Miss Mary Fisher, sister of the prospective bridegroom, will be bridesmaid.

Mr. Fisher has named his brothers, Rev. Jacob A. S. Fisher and Andrew Fisher, and the bride - elect's brother, Rev. Woodrow Hearn, as his attendants.

Mrs. Willie Sims Is Hostess At Meeting Of Rayville Club

The Art and Civic Club of Rayville met on Thursday, April 5 for a regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Willie Sims.

Mrs. Ed Jones, club president, called the meeting to order and the club collect was read in unison. A short business session was held at which time the members decided to postpone the bake sale, that was to have been on April 7, to an undecided date.

Mrs. Willie Sims took charge of the program for the afternoon and introduced the guest speaker who was Miss Bessie Noble of Winnsboro, La., fifth district president of L. F. W. C. Miss Noble chose as her topic of speech "Federation."

In part, Miss Noble gave four characteristics of a good club being as follows: Informational, inspirational, good fellowship, and a service club.

Miss Noble also said: "A basic foundation of a good club is the program of the club." Last, she conducted a quiz of 32 questions on parliamentary proceedings of the club. This was most informational to all present as this is a very new organization having been organized and federated in 1949.

The hostess served delicious refreshments to the following members present: Mrs. Ed Jones, Mrs. W. L. Jarmon, Mrs. Billie Boies,

REHEARSAL SUPPER COMPLIMENTS MISS ALICE HARRIS PRIOR TO MARRIAGE

A lovely occasion honoring Miss Alice Raines Harris before her recent marriage, was the rehearsal supper given Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. George Grafton and Mrs. Melba G. McDonald, in Bernice.

The wedding color scheme was effectively used throughout the living and dining rooms. The dining table was lovely with imported white Maderia linen and outwork cloth over pale green damask, and a center piece of white tulips, white hyscynthus and stephanotis interlaced with white lace and green tulle centered by golden double wedding rings. The center piece was flanked on each side with burning white tapers in double crystal candelabras.

Place cards tied with dainty sprays of lily of the valley, marked the places of the bride - elect, Miss Harris, her fiancé, Mr. Carl Scott Sims of San Antonio, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Lindsey, Jr., parents of the honoree, the Rev. L. P. Moreland of Bienville, and the host, Mr. George D. Grafton.

Reflected in the mirror of the buffet was a crystal bowl filled with white iris, white spirea, and fern, flanked on each side by lighted white tapers in double brass candelabras.

The color scheme of the bridal attendants was carried out in the living room with arrangements of Easter lilies, Picadilly gladiolas, white iris, fern and white spirea. Guests were served at bridge tables covered with Maderia cloths and centered with coral satin basins with golden double wedding ring handles and filled with Picadilly gladiolas and stephanotis.

Miss Harris was lovely in aqua crepe, and she and her mother wore corsages of white carnations presented by the hostesses.

A sterling silver mayonnaise bowl and spoon, wrapped in bridal white topped with a spray of lily of the valley and tied with tulle and white satin ribbon, was presented Miss Harris by the host and hostesses.

During the conversational hour, Mrs. Arthur Scott, aunt of the honoree, entertained with musical selections.

Other guests and members of the bridal party sharing the courtesy with the honoree were: Mrs. Arthur Emerson, Miss Ca. Emerson, Mrs. Don Lomas, and little Donna Lomas, Mr. Robert Dennis, and Mr. Arthur Scott, Jr., of Monroe; Miss Virginia Smith and Miss Mary Holt Myrick of Rayville; Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Smith of Baton Rouge, Mr. and Mrs. Dixie Maddonia of New Roads; Mrs. Emily Myrick of Hammond; Miss Zoe Poinboeuf of Logansport; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lindsey, Miss Suzanne Lindsey, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scott, Sr., of Bernice.

Miss Barbara Monroe And Earl Tarver Are United In Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Monroe announce the marriage of their daughter Miss Barbara Monroe, to Earl Lester Tarver, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Tarver. The marriage was solemnized March 15 in Hamburg, Ark.

The couple are now at home at 510 Hall street in this city.

Herman Miller, Jr., Celebrates Birthday

Herman Bradford Miller, Jr. of Fowler, Interstate Natural Gas Unit, celebrated his seventh birthday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Miller, Sr., Thursday afternoon. Jane Gill and Janet Roark were in charge of the many interesting games which were played during the afternoon. After the lovely gifts were opened by the little celebrant and placed on display, the beautifully embossed two tiered birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream to the following guests: Beverly Sanders, Charry Toustinau, B. B. Spence, Boogie Roberts, John David Woodridge, Martha Peters, Jane Brimberry, Borda Jean Bradley, Kathy Bradley, Debbie Rogers, Johnny Trevillion, Janice Trevillion, Edward Trevillion, Joe Michael Miller, Donna Lynn Miller and the honoree, Brad Miller.

Family Reunion Honors Out-Of-Town Guests

A family reunion was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Morris Sunday, in honor of Mrs. Savannah Barber, and Mrs. Dorothy Schmaling of Pasadena, Calif. A delicious lunch was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Eber Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Cunningham, and family of Rayville, Mrs. Lula Smith of Mer Rouge; Mrs. Savannah Barber, Mrs. Dorothy Schmaling of Pasadena, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Odie Sturdivant and children Charlotte, Billy Glenn, and baby, of West Monroe; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Morris and children, Gayle and Camille of West Monroe; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Laird and children, Elvie, Gene, Allen, John Wesley, of Tallulah.

IRIS GARDENS IN FULL BLOOM AT HOME OF MRS. W. R. GATES

American Iris Society Members in this region have been working for some time in an effort to make the 1951 Annual National Meeting of the A. I. S. at Shreveport April 22, 23 and 24 an outstanding one. They are looking forward to welcoming many iris lovers to the State of Louisiana. Mrs. W. R. Gates of West Monroe will be one of the hostesses in the Conger Iris Garden in Arcadia when the A. I. S. members visit there on their official tour April 22.

Many of the iris growers will come by automobile and will return by way of Monroe to visit the iris gardens here. Mrs. Gates' Iris Garden at 404 Linderman, West Monroe is listed in the A. I. S. Convention bulletin as open. This garden containing one of the largest collection of tall bearded irises in Louisiana normally reaches its peak between the 15th and 30th April. Early blooming Hybrids may be expected to come into bloom immediately after the Shreveport meeting. The garden also contains a large collection of Native Louisiana Hybrids, several varieties of Spuria and Siberian irises and over one hundred varieties of named daylilies. Mrs. Gates pioneered in the culture of tall bearded irises in the Twin-City area and has been interested in collecting, hybridizing and acclimating irises of various types.

A few years ago we had irises of a thousand lovely shades but we still wanted a pink one. Now we have the sensational pink irises with tangerine beards. Two of the best ones for this locality are Pink Cameo and Cherie.

The pride of the Gates' Garden is a large crescent shaped bed in which the American Iris Society's chosen hundred best iris were planted last season. Most of the iris have yard long stems. "Blue Rhythm" won the president's cup and the Dykes medal in 1950. "New Snow" and "Lady Boscawen," two gorgeous new white irises, can also be seen in the Iris Garden. Last season these two irises were over 50 inches in height and put up a dozen bloom stalks. "Queen Helen McGregor," the 1949 Dykes medal winner, is another famous iris grown in the Gates' Garden. Also included among these famous iris are: Cherie, Spanish Peaks, Pink Cameo, Confetti and Chivalry. Los Angeles, Christabel, and Golden Spike, old-timers among the iris beds. A large bed of tall Louisiana Hybrids which include Bayou Sunset, Hallie Selassie and Cajun, are also among the beds. Mrs. Gates' also has an iris seedling bed behind a shrub hedge where the controlled hybridized seeds are planted each fall. Adding an attractive note is the white stepping stone walk.

Mrs. Gates, a member of the American Iris Society, Louisiana Iris Society, Monroe Garden Club and Welcome Garden Club is called Iris by her friends because of her hobby.

Mrs. Gates has cultivated and pulverizing the soil, adding sand and bone meal, while raising the beds 8 to 10 inches above the wide paths between the beds. For the past five years heavy mulch is placed in the paths until it is thoroughly decomposed to loamy black earth. Each spring some of this good earth is added to iris beds. Bearded iris will rot in wet weather if mulch is placed directly on them in this locality and they require good drainage, good soil, sunshine, clean cultivation fertilizer, frequent resetting, and proper selection of variety best suited to conditions under which it is to be grown.

Flower lovers are welcome to visit the garden of Mrs. Gates' which is one of the most beautiful in the Twin Cities. The Gates' garden has over three hundred varieties of iris and all are properly tagged and can be easily identified. Mrs. Gates' gardens are located at 404 Linderman avenue in West Monroe and each year thousands of visitors from over ten states have signed the guest book.

Insects And Pests Can Be Controlled

Aphids are little plant lice that infest all sorts of ornamental plants. You'll find them now on annuals, perennials and shrubs. Aphids don't usually kill plants, but they "sap" the vigor of plants because they live by sucking the plant juices. The plant lice cause leaves to curl and become distorted, buds to harden, or flowers to become deformed. When you look for aphids you'll find them usually on new growth in clusters below buds and underneath leaves. The soft-bodied, eighth-inch long, greenish, white or blackish aphids have lots of children each year, so start controlling them when you first see them. Mrs. Mildred Swift, associate home demonstration agent, says that you can use a dust or a spray. Dust with a 3 per cent nicotine or a 1 per cent lindane, or spray with nicotine sulphate, which you can get in a commercial package for mixing, or a new chemical, TEPP, called Tepp.

Mrs. Swift states that the scale insects that attack camellias are the tea scale and the camellia scale. Control of both may begin now with a summer oil emulsion spray. The tea scale infests the leaves, chiefly on the underside, so the leaves must be sprayed on the underside. While feeding, the little insects cause yellowish blotches to form on the underside of the leaves. Also you may notice small masses of substance that look like cotton. Camellia scale also infests the leaves but does not leave any discoloration. The agents say that the spray to use is a 2 per cent summer oil emulsion spray. Follow directions for use of the spray found on the container. Put most of the spray on the underside of the leaves because that's where most of the scale will be found, then a sweep over the camellia plant will cover the top side of the leaves well enough. Spider mites that also cause injury to camellias are controlled with the same type of spray.

The agent says sowbugs and pillbugs may deceive you when they roll up into small gray balls. Kill them with poison bran bait, 10 per cent DDT dust or 5 per cent chlordane.

Slugs and snails are slimy creatures, and they like to eat ripe fruit, especially strawberries. Use a poison bait of three pounds of Bran and one ounce of Methalddehyde. Moisten slightly and apply in the late afternoon.

Cutworms are caterpillars that hide during the day and eat during the night. A poison bran bait which you can mix yourself will kill cutworms. Scatter the bait late in the afternoon among the garden or truck crop. To make poison mix: 3 lbs wheat bran, 3 tablespoons Paris Green, 1/2 cup molasses, 1 quart water.

Call 3-2251 and ask for Insect Pest Control Leaflet No. 31. This is a free service from your agricultural extension department.

BRIDE AND GROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Jarrell Bernard Crow, bride and groom, whose marriage took place March 23. The bride is the former Miss Norma Jean Warren, daughter of Mrs. Mae Warren. Mr. Crow is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Crow, Sr.

Miss Norma Jean Warren Weds Jarrell Bernard Crow

Impressive Ceremony Is Solemnized At The College Place Baptist Church

Mrs. Mae Warren announces the marriage of her daughter, Norma Jean Warren, to Jarrell Bernard Crow, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Crow, Sr., of this city.

The marriage was performed by the Rev. C. S. Cadwallader, Jr., at 2:30 p. m. Friday, March 24, at the College Place Baptist Church.

The bride's mother wore a lovely light blue crepe dress with rhinestones sprinkling the neckline, her accessories were of navy blue, and her corsage was pink carnations.

The groom's mother wore a lovely printed silk dress in brown and white with accessories to match. Her corsage was of yellow carnations.

Mrs. R. E. Turnbough, the bride's sister, was matron of honor and was wearing a dark brown nylon dress with matching accessories. She carried a beautiful hand bouquet of yellow carnations. Serving Mr. Crow as best man was a boyhood friend, Mr. Thomas Nicholson.

Mrs. Alta C. Faircloth played a beautiful prelude by Schuman while the attendants, Mr. James E. Wood and Mr. J. B. Simmons lighted the candles. Max Dillingham, accompanied by Mrs. Faircloth, sang "I Love You Truly," and "Because." Both processional and recessional wedding marches by Mendelssohn were played.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Clarence E. Warren. She was lovely in a beautiful sky-blue tissue crepe dress with matching picture hat of misty nylon. Her hat had a flowing veil that was pinned in place on her shoulder with an antique diamond brooch belonging to her mother. Her accessories to match were of navy linen. In her hand she carried a white Bible topped with a large white orchid with white satin ribbon streamers.

The reception was held at the bride's mother's home, immediately following the ceremony, and was given by Dr. Katherine Foster. The white color theme used in the reception room was accentuated with beautiful arrangements of white lilies, dogwood, and carnations. The refreshment table, overlaid with pale pink imported linen, was centered with a diamond shaped crystal bowl filled with dogwood, and white lilies, flanked by crystal branched candelabras holding white tapers.

A variety of attractive and delicious tea dainties and confections were served including bridal mints and nuts.

Alternating at the punch bowl were Dr. Katherine Foster, Mrs. Lee Keely, Mrs. Hays Gentry, and Mrs. Johnnie Salley.

After the reception the couple left for the gay old historical city of New Orleans for their honeymoon.

For travelling the bride chose a coffee colored linen, with accessories of navy linen. She wore the beautiful corsage of white orchids.

L. F. W. C. STATE PRESIDENT

Mrs. Henry M. Mims, state president of the Louisiana Federation of Women's Clubs, was guest speaker at the annual Fifth District Conference held in Sicily Island recently.

STATE PRESIDENT OF THE L. F. W. C. IS GUEST SPEAKER AT CONFERENCE

Mrs. Henry M. Mims, state president of the Louisiana Federation of Women's Clubs, was guest speaker at the Fifth District Conference held recently in Sicily Island.

"Build Freedom with Youth" was the theme of Mrs. Mims' speech and she said in part: "Today women are challenged to greater action than ever before in our history in meeting our major responsibilities as women and good citizens in preparedness for Civil Defense and to our obligation and opportunity to build a freedom for the future, by working with youth in the program of build freedom with youth contest an outgrowth of recommendations of the White House conference on children and youth."

Progressive opportunities should be provided for youth to participate vitally in community activities and planning in order that they may early have the preparation and experience for leadership and community service. We should accept our responsibilities as club women to stimulate the community to provide these partnership opportunities. The seven major responsibilities for women today are listed as: 1. Helping to maintain the moral of American families. 2. Buying wisely, to keep economic structure sound and inflation down. 3. Buying War Bonds to help finance the fight against communism. 4. Keeping cheerful as the men go forth to the struggle under the United Nations banner. 5. Keeping the morale fiber of the nation strong, so that it does not disintegrate by the new strains on our homes and economy. 6. Sacrificing many of our today's comforts for the freedom and the hope of Peace. 7. Praying daily for the success of the United States and our Allies in the United Nations.

American women have always measured up to the nation's necessities and to their opportunities. We must accept our responsibilities today. In working with youth we can secure for every child a fair chance for healthy personality, recognizing religious knowledge and understanding as essential to the development of spiritual values. We must not lag in our efforts to provide those conditions which will make it possible for all of our youth to lead useful, happy lives."

Mrs. Mims urged the attendance to the G. F. W. C. convention to be held in Houston, Texas, May 14-19 and the State convention of L. F. W. C. to be held in Alexandria, November 8-10.

MRS. GEORGE REITZE HOSTESS AT MEETING OF LITERATURE CLUB

The Current Literature Club met Wednesday, April 11 in the home of Mrs. George Reitze. The meeting opened by the reading of the collect, followed by a business session conducted by Mrs. L. M. Frey, president.

Mrs. S. R. Blossat was welcomed into the club as a new member. Mrs. W. A. Whitfield, Jr., introduced the afternoon's program which consisted of an article "Women in Nutrition" given by Mrs. G. M. Heidenreich.

Mrs. Jack Wyatt reviewed the book, "Which Mrs. Torr?" by Maude Parker. She said in part: "The two Torr women were at each other's throats over the boy. Someone was slated to die."

"When Jim Little, the young New York lawyer, arrived at the Torr summer estate in the Colorado mountains, the strained emotions between the two women were at a breaking point. Beautiful Lucy Torr, estranged from her husband, was clearly capable of anything. So was Mrs. Torr, her mother-in-law."

"The Torr inheritance was at the bottom of it, of course. But a lot of other things were involved. There were the three men, for instance: Jim Little, who was once secretly engaged to Lucy; Lucy's husband Randall II, who hated her; Geoffrey St. Dunscombe, the good-looking tutor, who secretly loved her."

"It was a fight to the death—but whose death? Writing with the sure fire storytelling power that has earned her so many fans, Maude Parker will keep you in suspense to the very last word."

Maude Parker's short stories appear regularly in such magazines as the Saturday Evening Post, Cosmopolitan, and The American. Five of her novels have also been published. This is her first mystery.

At the conclusion of the program delicious refreshments were served to the following members: Mrs.

Z. C. Ambrose, Mrs. Jordan Bart-on, Mrs. S. R. Blossat, Mrs. Dan Dennett, Mrs. Leon Dennis, Mrs. L. M. Frey, Mrs. Delmas Jackson, Mrs. G. M. Heidenreich, Mrs. Ray D. Magruder, Mrs. Clint Miller, Mrs. E. A. Porter Jr., Mrs. Carlton C. Salley, Mrs. R. F. Seiler, Mrs. Earl Stovall, Mrs. Buddy Tolson, Mrs. W. O. Webb, Mrs. W. A. Whitfield Jr., Mrs. Jack Wyatt and the hostess.

INDIANA BRIDE

Mrs. Hammond Gilmore Reed, the former Miss Olga Evelyn Petterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Petterson, of this city, before her recent marriage in Bloomington, Ind. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelsie G. Reed, of Lexington, Mass.

MISS OLGA EVELYN PETTERSON IS BRIDE OF HAMMOND GILMORE REED

The Trinity Episcopal Church in Bloomington, Indiana, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Olga Evelyn Petterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Petterson, of this city, to Hammond Gilmore Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelsie G. Reed, of Lexington, Massachusetts, which was solemnized recently.

The Reverend A. Ellison Cole officiated over the double-ring nuptials which were read before a background of alter vases of white bridal flowers, palms and Candelabra.

Professor Robert Mitchner, organist, presented bridal selections including Schubert's "Ave Maria," "O Perfect Love," "The Lord's Prayer," and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a tight bodice, full skirt forming a train, long sleeves, high neckline and small standing collar fashioned with lace. Her fingertip veil was caught to a cap of lace and she carried a ballerina bouquet of white chrysanthemums and roses. Pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom, and a pearl necklace completed her costume.

Miss Lydia Reed, of Lexington, Massachusetts, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor and wore a gown of bottle green velvet fashioned with long sleeves and a bandeau neckline. On her matching headband were gold chrysanthemums and she carried a bouquet of the same flowers tied with tulle streamers.

Deane Stanley, of Laconia, N. H., served Mr. Reed as best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Miss Helen Duncan. The bride's table was decorated with a white damask cloth and a bouquet of early spring flowers. The punch bowl was circled with smilax. The wedding cake was topped with figurines of a bride and groom. The cake and punch were served by Misses Belvin Sease and Frances Gamble of Little Mountain, S. C.

The couple then left on a wedding trip to New Orleans and Havana, Cuba, making their home at 1516 South Walnut, Bloomington, Indiana, after their wedding trip.

Among those attending from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. Kelsie G. Reed, of Lexington, Massachusetts, parents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Boylston Brown, of Lafayette, Louisiana. Mrs. Brown is the cousin of the bride.

The bride attended Neville High School, Monroe, La., and was graduated from Texas Wesleyan College in 1949. Since that time she had been doing graduate study in the Department of Zoology at Indiana University, and working as secretary to Dean of Adult Education. Mr. Reed received his A. B. degree from Harvard University in 1950, and also attended Indiana University. He has been associated with the Graham Hotel and is being recalled to active duty with the Army.

MISS JEANIE KNIGHT IS BRIDE OF MORGAN EDWARD WILLIAMS

Mr. and Mrs. John Jasper Knight of Delhi, announce the marriage of their daughter, Jeanie, to Morgan Edward Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Williams of Winnsboro, which was solemnized at the First Methodist Church in Delhi. The Rev. Donald Wineinger officiated at the impressive ceremony.

Before a rich chancel drape of antique crimson velvet the rail was banked in verdant lady fern, formed a background for a pyramidal silvered candelabra rearing ivory candel, sided by alternation baskets of white gladioli and fringed candlesticks. Clusters of maidenhair fern formed the bases of lighted tapers in each window end the ribbon pews were marked with huge satin bows above which single tapers were placed making a candescent path between the satin ropes down which the bridal party came.

Mr. Frank McKay at the organ played while Mrs. James Mariman sang "Thine Alone" and "Because" and Mrs. Lloyd Richards sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told" as the guests were being seated by the usher, Robert Bradberry, Delhi, Joseph Peyton and Troyce Guice of Natchez, Miss., Robert McCaleb of Lake Providence, and Bruce Landis, III of Winnsboro.

The bride was preceded down the aisle by her matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Bradberry, maid of honor, Miss Beatrice Tucker of Monroe, and bridesmaids, Miss Ann Crowe, Mrs. Barney Collinham, and Mrs. Bruce Landis of Winnsboro, the junior bridesmaids, Miss Ann Pittman and Miss Janice Osborn and her flower girl, little Marilyn Kaye Pittman who bestowed the aisle with flower petals.

They were all gowned alike in American beauty taffeta, the bodices being fitted with squared point lapel collars and shoulderpuff sleeves with tiny self-covered buttons to the waist. The skirts trifurcated and very full, over hoops, fell to the floor. They wore tiara hats of matching taffeta edged with forget-me-nots and carried sunburst bouquets of cream chrysanthemums tied with satin and tulle.

Little Marilyn Kaye Pittman wore a miniature of the bridesmaid's dresses and carried a satin basket trimmed in forget-me-nots. The bride, given in marriage, by her father, wore an ivory slipper satin model, moulded to the figure, the bodice having a yoke of satin bound net with wee satin buttons to the Belgian lace bodice. The sleeves, buttoned to the elbow, ended in points over her hands. The skirt fell in heavy folds to an antebellum hemline with baroness train. Her veil fell like a mist from a circlet of pearl orange blossoms with diamantine centers and she carried a white satin Bible topped with stephanotis and white orchid with satin show-er ribbons. They were met at the chancel by her bridegroom and best man, James Wall.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Knight wore a frock of peacock blue, the bodice encrusted with spray of paillettes in silver and black. Her corsage, worn at the shoulder, was of specimen roses. Mrs. Williams chose a deep lilac trepe-culture made with fitted bodice with deep square neckline, over this she wore a matching bolero with a shoulder corsage of butter carnations.

At the reception, which followed in the bride's reception room at the church, the members of the wedding party, the bride and groom and their mothers stood to receive felicitations. The room was lovely with the white gladioli and greenery.

The bride's table was overlaid with white organdie over green and drawn at the corners with a nosegay of green carnations and white net. The table was centered with the three-tiered confection.

After the reception the bride changed her wedding gown for a beautifully tailored navy blue ga-

MR. FRED HUDSON IS GUEST SPEAKER AT QUOTA CLUB MEETING

"Inflation" was the topic selected by Mr. Fred Hudson, prominent local attorney, when he spoke to the Monroe Quota Club at its regular meeting at the Frances Hotel, April 12, 1951. Inflation is a deadly disease in which we see our savings, our bonds, our life insurance and other set values being swept away. Chief contributing factor to this inflation, Mr. Hudson declared, is the Federal Government itself. Mr. Hudson went on to say that especially does the Federal Government make the situation more pronounced by its issuing and borrowing more and more money to make up for the deficit it creates by its extravagant spending. Reasonable tax increases and greater production have some curb on inflation, but without stopping the "money factory" the job cannot be done effectively if at all.

The propaganda of the price control program and what it is going to do, the guest speaker contended, is a politician's way of getting more authority for economic planning. By itself price control inevitably leads to rationing which can only lead to more bureaucracy to maintain both. In many supposedly public benefits—such as homestead exemption and social security—we see extravagance instigated by the state and federal governments to gain more power for those in office. In effect, Mr. Hudson stated the tax income of our government is used to buy votes for political perpetuation.

It never occurs to the politicians to control inflation by doing the obvious thing—cut down spending in national, state, and local government. What can we do? Answered Mr. Hudson: "The only thing we can do about it is to live within our income. By that I mean not only to do it individually, but see that we do it in our City, State, and Nation." It is up to us to elect competent officials who will practice after election the public economy they all preach before election.

Mr. Hudson's speech initiated the first program of the fiscal year, 1951-52, for the Quota Club of Monroe at their regular luncheon meeting at the Frances Hotel. Members present were: Mrs. W. J. Veazey, Freeda Mickel, Mrs. D. L. Agnew, Mrs. O. S. Tomlinson, Mrs. Allen Ritter, Mrs. Joe E. Murray, Mamie McVell, Mrs. John B. Collins, Mrs. J. P. Norris, Jr., Mrs. B. L. Vorse, Mrs. D. R. Sartor, Leota Martin, Marjorie Karstendiek, Mrs. H. M. James, Mrs. Helen Blanchard, and Mrs. M. A. Denoux.

Public Forum

Editor News-Star-World,
Monroe, La.

Dear Sir:

There are some questions that have held me in a grip of fear for months. I don't have the answer and I am fearful.

1—Who sent our boys to Korea? Did Mr. Truman or am I wrong?

2—What and how much were they supposed to conquer when they went there?

3—We are told if they don't stay there will be a war. If they aren't now in war what is it?

4—Are they in Korea just to kill and be killed south of the 38th parallel with no hope of ever accomplishing their purpose because they have no goal to reach or if they do they don't know what it is.

5—Someone says our boys must stay there to save us. Does this mean to save every young man every son of ours must march into Korea to fight until dead to save us? Our sons and our daughters are our life. If they have to die in the same place without getting anywhere month in and month out, how are we saving ourselves? Some people are not lucky enough to have a son but they may have a daughter that they will want to breath of criticism to touch. We don't mind having our sons and daughters criticized. We just want them alive with two good arms and legs and eyes, able to laugh and love and to have us teach them to be good and pray God we do the job right.

6—Are any of our sons now in Korea to come home to stay and how many more are to be sent there and again what must they win to see the battles ended?

7—If England is going to sell supplies to Communists who sent her anything? Don't tell me it is because we made a trade with her.

8—One reporter said that English soldiers are dying in Korea, too. How many? If every British soldier in Korea were to be killed the casualty list wouldn't be a third as high as ours.

9—Mr. Truman says we must try to end this diplomatically. If that is so how about bringing our boys home while we talk? I mean now when the most of them are dead.

Yours truly,
Mrs. A. K. McIntyre,
Rayville, La.

PS—I'm sending this letter to Mr. Passman, Mr. Long and Mr. Ellender.

Once in awhile plan potato chowder, a salad and a dessert-type of dinner for your family. Make the chowder more hearty than usual by tossing in some chunks of ripe olives and plenty of crisp crumbled bacon. We find cutting the large olives into quarters and removing one section at a time from the pit is the easiest way to get nice chunky pieces.

BRIDAL BRUNCH AND DINNER HONOR MER ROUGE BRIDE-ELECT

Climaxing the social events held in honor of Miss Genevieve White, Mer Rouge bride-elect, was the brunch given by Mrs. A. B. Combs. The delightful affair entertained members of the bridal party and close friends of the bride.

Specimen tulips enhanced the beauty of the reception suite, placed in low bowls about the rooms. Mrs. Cone ushered her guests into the dining room where the table, overlaid with linen scint damask in a delicate shade of pink, was centered with an arrangement of purple iris and orchid tulie, orchid candles burning in low candlelabra.

A bag fashioned of tulle filled with rice marked the place of each guest, as the sixteen intimate friends took their seats to share with the honoree on this occasion. Following the luncheon, hot coffee and delicious fried pies in miniature heart shapes were passed.

Enjoying this occasion with the honoree were: Mrs. White, the bride's mother, Miss Dorothy White, Mrs. Warren White, Mrs. Gene Lotin, Mrs. Buddie Jones, Mrs. Ted Calloway, Miss Donna Bacon, Mrs. Max Brodnax, Jr., Mrs. Jesse Graves, Mrs. G. A. Hume, Mrs. E. M. Clark, Miss Ernie D. Carr, Baton Rouge, and Mrs. Frank Elkins, Monroe.

One of the loveliest compliments bestowed upon Miss White was the dinner party at the home of Mrs. E. T. Davidson.

Daffodils, narcissus and hyacinths used in profusion added a note of beauty to this occasion.

The dining table was overlaid with satin damask with a lovely centerpiece suggestion of Easter. The place cards were replicas of the guests fashioned from eggs. Placed on the table was the miniature wedding party.

A most delectable three course dinner was served to the honoree. Mrs. Shelby White, her mother and the groom's mother, Mrs. Haight, Mrs. Charlie McDuff, Miss Ester Leavis, Mrs. Martin Rogers and Miss Donna Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Tipton and Mr. John Lewis Davidson.

The hostess' son, John Lewis, and daughter, Mrs. A. White, presented the honoree with an antique berry bowl.

TALLULAH

Mrs. Dean Moberly and Mrs. Herbert Bailey of Natchez were recent guests of Miss Hazel Jean Moberly.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Neill, Jr., have moved into their new home on South Elm street.

Mrs. G. F. Lanehart has returned from a visit with relatives in Natchez and other points in Mississippi. During her stay she was guest for a short trip to New Orleans.

Mrs. L. Z. Naylor has returned from Ruston where she attended a week's course in nursing preparatory to teaching a course in home nursing to a class of home economics girls of the Tallulah High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Catchings Baird Smith of Jackson, Miss., are parents of a daughter, Sharon Louise, born March 13. Mrs. Smith will be remembered here as Miss Lotie Louise Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lee.

At a recent meeting of the Madison parish school board Mrs. Betty Jean Addison was elected as music supervisor for the 1951-52 session. She succeeds Mrs. Rowena Merriman who will resign at the close of the present session.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gilbert and children of Memphis, Tenn., were weekend guests of Mr. Gilbert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gilbert.

FERRIDAY

Mrs. Ben Pace Friday entertained the members of the Community Service Club at her home with Mesdames Johnnie Vollmer and Jack Valentine as co-hostesses. Following a very interesting program, a delicious salad course was served.

BOOKS and MUSIC

Familiar Antics

Rosamond Marshall fans, who like their heroines as daring as "Kitty" and as exciting as "Duchess Holspur" will find a fit subject in Laurie MacNeill, the heroine of Miss Marshall's latest buxom bid, Laird's Choice.

Laurie MacNeill is a high-spirited Scottish lass who runs the gamut from dairymaid to the stormy arms of the Laird (Lord of Duff-Drummond estates). Naturally, every more she makes is as far removed from life as Miss Marshall intended it to be. If her books have any purpose whatsoever, they are to afford so-called "escapist" readers a few hours' sizzling reading. Because of that, Laird's Choice is not a disappointing book. It's just a leading contender in the parade of scintillating hi-jinks. As for heroine Laurie MacNeill, there's no need my telling you how she spends most of the 298 pages. (LAIRD'S CHOICE. By Rosamond Marshall. 298 pp New York; Prentice-Hall $3.00.)

The case of Erskine Caldwell is a little different. When he penned "Tobacco Road" and "God's Little Acre," he startled the reading public with what many scandalized persons called "the vilest words ever written."

But he was, however, they were sincere approaches to a segment of our population whose mixture of comedy and pathos received their most potent story-telling. But since that time, Mr. Caldwell has chosen merely to repeat the same old things, as though he were aping his earlier successes. His latest volume, Episode In Palmetto, is rather sad, at best. The old Caldwell scenes of brutal passion and naked emotions are still around, but the social conscience which dominated "God's Little Acre" is buried too deep to be found. (EPISODE IN PALMETTO. By Erskine Caldwell, 252 pp. New York; Duell, Sloan and Pearce, $2.75.)

Pal Joey

On Christmas night in the year 1940, a musical opened on Broadway which left half of the audience applauding wildly, the other half sitting in stony, stunned silence. That musical was Pal Joey, a Rodgers-Hart offering that has since been remembered as the show that brought Gene Kelly to stardom. Certainly it was a different sort of musical than had thus far been produced. Hardly a character was really pleasant. Brooks Atkinson, the New York Times asler, wrote, "Although Pal Joey is expertly done, can you draw sweet water from a foul well?"

Times, and attitudes toward

Broadway musicals, have changed a lot since 1940. So Columbia Records has at last recorded the original show, with Vivienne Segal and Harold Lang singing the leads. Only one of the numbers, "Be-witched, Bothered and Bewildered," ever received popular attention, but the others range from the simple "I Could Write A Book" to the frank "In Our Little Den Of Iniquity." This latter seems mild now, in view of the suggestive material that has dominated Broadway musicals for almost a decade. Vivienne Segal handles the feminine lead quite well, and Harold Lang (whom I found a better dancer than crooner in "Kiss Me Kate") shows more expression in his voice than he does melody. As for the score as a whole, Rogers' music is often pleasant, but nothing compared to the work he's now creating with Oscar Hammerstein, and the lyrics of the late Lorenzo Hart, while lively enough, are about as subtle as the proverbial ton of bricks. Anyway, Pal Joey is headed for more success than it enjoyed in its own heyday. (PAL JOEY, Columbia, 33, 45, 78.)

New Approach To Music

With Simon and Schuster's "A Treasury of Grand Opera," the amalgamation of sheet music with text reaches its pinnacle. Certainly few enterprises have been arranged by better care. The editor, Henry W. Simon, has chosen the leading preludes, principal arias and concerted numbers from Don Giovanni, Lohengrin, La Traviata, Carmen, Faust, Aida and Pagliacchi, presented them in both the original French, Italian or German, as well as in beautiful English translations by George Mead, and given them excellent piano arrangements by Albert Sirmay. But the sheet music is only one feature. Each opera is introduced with a short, informal essay, giving its strange history, followed then by the complete plot in entertaining detail. Too, there are some forty handsome illustrations by Raffaello Busoni, bringing the number of pages to 403.

When the publishers planned this volume, they obviously did so on a mammoth scale. Certainly the end result is one of the best ventures in the music publishing field. And the double purpose it serves is really rewarding. The carefully-written text is as interesting as it is worthwhile; the music from these seven great productions was never wrapped in a more becoming package. Recommended to all music lovers who not only take their music seriously but are forever on the lookout for a lasting library volume. (A TREASURY OF GRAND OPERA. Sheet music and text. New York: Simon & Schuster, $7.50.) J. A.

CLAIBORNE METHODIST CHURCH

Calhoun Road
F. L. Hearne, pastor.
Dr. E. Fleming, church school supt.
Thought is a sculptor, the sharp chisel cuts deep or in light touches, but is evermore fashioning. Not in the face only does one's thinking and feeling find expression, but in the whole physical bearing. In step, in speech, in attire, in business, in man's habitual thinking and affections find expression, for these things are only the outward indication of what is really going on within one's invisible self—the spirit.
At our church are:

MOUNTBATTENS VISIT PONTIFF

Protestants Object to Princess' Visit To Pope Pius
Vatican City, April 14. — (U. P.) — British Princess Elizabeth and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, visited Pope Pius XII today. The audience drew protestant objections in Britain.
Five British organizations in protesting to King George VI. The Protestant Truth Society, the Protestant Alliance, The Women's Protestant Union, the Sovereign Grace Union and the British Bible Union telegraphed the king, Elizabeth's father:
"We are deeply grieved over the visit made by the princess to the pope."
The heir presumptive to British throne and her husband spoke with the pontiff for half an hour in a meeting which the vatican announced was "affable." The pomp and pageantry of the Roman Catholic Holy See surrounded the coming and going of the royal pair.
The leader of the Protestant Truth Society in London, John A. Kensil, sought leaders of other protestant societies who are opposed to "Romish" practices in England to protest anew the third royal visit to the pope within 30 years.
These same societies had united in protest against the visit in 1949 by Princess Margaret, King George V and Queen Mary were received by the pope in 1923.
"Despite our protests," said Kensil, "Princess Margaret went to see the pope. Now it's Princess Elizabeth. After all, she's heir presumptive to the throne. It's terrible."
But a spokesman for the church of England, of which King George VI is titular head, shrugged off the visit as merely a "matter of common courtesy."
"The princess is in Rome as a private individual and can visit whom she likes," the spokesman said. "For her to see the pope is a matter of common courtesy. After all, he's a Christian leader. Why shouldn't she call on him? There may be a difference of opinion between the church of England and the church of Rome, but there's certainly no enmity whatever."
London evening newspapers front-paged pictures of Elizabeth, Philip and vatican officials, but made no editorial comment.
The vatican announcement said the pontiff expressed thoughts of cordial interest and greetings for Britain's sovereigns, for the royal family and for all the people of the commonwealth.
He presented the princess a finely-wrought image—not further described in the announcement—and gave the duke a gold medal of the first year of his pontificate.
As the princess and her husband who are on a 12-day vacation in Rome, emerged from the pope's chambers, they were cheered by about 500 students and directors of the commonwealth seminars in Rome. They royal party then visited Raphael's Loggia and the Sistine chapel.
Sweet cooked prunes filled with cottage cheese and tart juicy orange slices team up well together in a fruit salad. For a prettily appointed salad plate, arrange the stuffed prunes on sliced oranges and alternate with nut-covered banana fingers. Dip the banana fingers in pineapple juice first and then roll in crushed nuts.

Angelo Patri Our Children

"How can I be sure that we are doing everything we can to assure sound mental health in our child of three? Am I right or wrong when I insist that he obey even when he fights me as he does when I tell him it is bedtime? Am I right or wrong when I tell him he cannot go out to play without his rubbers when the lot is in puddles? Is crossing him going to affect his mental health?"
Common sense is a great medicine and accessible to all intelligent people. When a child feels secure his mental health can be left to take care of itself. Children need and want the care and attention of their parents. The child that battles to stay up for another five minutes or so would be unhappy, feel insecure, if there were nobody to tell him that bedtime was at hand and to see that he was prepared for it properly.
Children lean hard on their fathers and mothers and they like knowing that their parents can be depended on, whether it is to make them go to bed on time or to take them to a picnic. They will say a proudly "My mother, my father, wouldn't allow me to do such a thing," although perhaps they have put up a strenuous battle to do that very thing a short time ago.
Children never grow up to sound maturity without giving their parents plenty of trouble and worry. All children make mistakes and all parents, being human, make them too. Healthy mental attitudes allow such mistakes to be accepted for what they are, guide posts to more intelligent ways, to be passed by and forgotten, not dwell on and stewed over until they become festering centers in the mind.
When a parent makes a mistake and recognizes it, he can correct it. If conditions warrant it, he can say he made a mistake and will correct it. The child who is reared in an atmosphere of understanding good will, frankness, acceptance of life and its often untoward ways, will have sound mental health.
The one influence to dread, because of its effect on mental health, is fear. Fear is such a far-reaching poison that its presence is to be avoided as much as possible. The unreasonable fear that possesses children who dread the dark, who cannot bear to be alone, who scream at the sight of a stranger, who shrink from life calls for the help of the expert, the skilled psychiatrist.
That sort of fear is not bred in children whose mothers insist they go to bed on time, or out with their rubbers on when the ground is wet. That kind of care makes for sound mental and physical health.

NEVILLE BAND PLANS CONCERT

Band And Choir Both Rated Superior At Ruston Festival
Neville's band and Glee Club, each recently rating superior in state competition at Ruston, will present their annual concert to culminate the year's musical activities at Neville in the Ruston auditorium, May 4, at 8 p.m., William Parks, director, has announced.
In the face of critical judging at Louisiana Tech April 6 and 7, both of the groups, along with practically every entry from the city schools, rated superior. The band has 55 members in the concert group, and the Senior High Girls' Chorus has 60.
The Neville Junior High band, 57 members, the Junior High glee club, 49 members, and the extremely large all-city elementary band, 162 members, all of which are under the direction of John Davis, also rated superior at the Music Festival.
Miss Dorothy Tullos, music supervisor in the city elementary schools who teaches vocal music at this level, had two entries at Tech. The Georgia Tucker Grammar School chorus and the Barkdull Faulk chorus. The former group rated excellent, and the latter superior.
In individual competition, the city school students rated very high as a group. Jimmy Choate, baritone solo, superior; John Birdsong, cornet solo, superior; Wilmer Lawson, baritone solo, superior; Keith Hunter, trombone solo, superior; and Leland Sims' rating has not been received for his solo.
In voice competition, Lloydelle Walters' rated superior; Jane Blanchard, superior; Ann Flynn, excellent, and one student rated very good.

43 Army Chaplains Get Decorations

Tokyo, April 14. — (U. P.) — Decorations have been awarded to 43 army chaplains — including two killed in action — since the beginning of the Korean War.
The highest decoration — the distinguished service cross — went to a Catholic chaplain, Capt. Herman G. Felthoelter, Louisville, Ky. He was decorated for remaining behind with the wounded during a Red attack north of Taejeon. He was killed in action July 16.
Awards of silver star medals for gallantry in combat included:
Capt. James M. Helder, Route 6, Box 625, Pine Bluff, Ark., 19th Infantry regiment.
Bronze star medal for meritorious achievement was awarded to:
Capt. Henry G. Dutcher, Ft. Smith, Ark., first cavalry division artillery.
If you're planning a shower for one of the season's brides elect, here is an easy dessert for it. Fill cream puff shells with a mixture of soft ice cream and canned fruit cocktail. To make it extra special top the whole thing with chocolate sauce.
The Latins once considered the harp a musical instrument of "barbarians."

Attend The Church of Your Choice

How much is religious freedom worth?

Ask the Pilgrims, who braved the ocean and the wilderness and death to secure it.

Ask the people of the thirteen original states who refused to ratify the Constitution until it was guaranteed in an added Bill of Rights.

Ask the soldiers who fought in both World Wars that it might be established everywhere as one of four freedoms essential to man.

Ask the framers of the United Nations Charter who placed it high in the Declaration of Human Rights.

Ask the millions of people in other lands who even now struggle and suffer to wrest it from their rulers.

Then ask yourself.

Is religious freedom worth enough to you so that you guard it by using it?

Are you among the Americans who worship regularly . . . each in his own church and according to his own conscience . . . yet all united by a common faith in the brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God?

Much depends upon your answer, for in this common faith our nation was founded and upon it all our freedoms rest. If enough of us should let it rust away, all that we mean by America would crumble with it.

Find yourself through faith—come to church this week

Dale Carnegie: "I spent several years writing a book on How to Stop Worrying and Start Living. After years of research, I am convinced that the best possible method for conquering worry is prayer and religious faith."

Lions Club Has Meet In Lenwill

The West Monroe Lions Club met at the Lenwill School for their regular Thursday night luncheon, with Miss Gregory, the principal of the school, as host. The P. T. A. served the luncheon and the Y-Teen girls helped. The club was entertained very royally by the Y-Teen girls and their singing.

Also appearing on the program was Miss Sue Hunt, who presented a very interesting reading, followed by an excellent talk on the "Youth and our Hope for Peace." Miss Hunt began her talk with the following Bible verse: "Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace and pursue it." (Psalms 34:14). She continued with "A peaceable disposition is a distinguishing mark of Christian character and the want of it is a serious defect in the character of anyone that nameth the name of Christ. Upon all who claim to be His followers it is enjoined in the words of an inspired apostle: 'If it be possible, as much as in you lieth, be at peace with all men. (Romans 12:18.)" Miss Hunt ended her talk with a poem entitled "Youth Prays for Peace," the closing line of the poem being, "Lord, may there never be another war—This is our prayer."

Next week, the West Monroe Lions Club will again return to the Social Hall of the First Baptist Church for their luncheon.

Top a fluffy wedge of angel food cake with chilled thickened apricot whole fruit nectar for a marvelous dessert. Sweeten the nectar with a little brown sugar and thicken to a runny consistency with cornstarch. During berry season toss a couple of spoonfuls of sweetened sliced strawberries, too.

A strussel-topped coffee cake is a favorite for Sunday morning breakfasts. Make the topping with ½ cup brown sugar, ½ cup chopped unblanched almonds, two tablespoons each flour and melted butter and two teaspoons cinnamon. Crumble the mixture and sprinkle over the batter before baking.

Mrs. Richardson's Pupils Entertain

Mrs. Sallie Richardson's pupils of grade six were presented to the Sterling P. T. A. Thursday at 3 p.m. when they met in the auditorium of the A. L. Smith School. Mrs. Grant Boardman, president, presided at the business session. Miss Mary Beth Taylor was reader of the origin of folk songs and dances. Those participating in the quadrille dances were: Karen Donaldson, Barbara Nan Gully, Bonnie Sue Edmiston, Dianne Sanchez, Frank Shaughnessy, Jim Harper, Jerry Hines and Larry Brakefield. The folk songs were well received. Their costumes were quite beautiful and well selected. The following girls participated: Frances Swayze, Leslie Amos, Ruby Nelle Redding, Wanda Garrett, Gail Simmons, Etta Fay Beasley, Ella Jane Shields, Mary V. Swayze, Patsy Brunson, Nancy Perdue, Mary Alice Osborne, Elaine Harper, Patsy Noble, Eva Lois Peters, Virginia Trichell, Imogene Hall, Poel Puckett, and Sarah Matkins.

Hog Cholera Is Called Big Menace

Many feeder pigs reach the farm after a long tiresome truck ride and they're worn out and exhausted. Many of them are also full of parasites of one kind or another. Hogs that have their vitality and strength "sapped" are in just the right condition to be attacked by the most dangerous feeder-pig disease—Hog Cholera (Kollar-A). Jasper J. Joyce, county agent with the agricultural extension department declares that last year over a million dollars loss of feeder-pigs was suffered in Louisiana. Hog cholera, therefore, is a disease that must be respected. Mr. Joyce says there's only one way to control hog cholera of the type found in Louisiana and that is by good management of the hogs and proper vaccination to control the disease.

Hogs that have been hauled for any distance should be well rested and free of parasites before vaccination. Mr. Joyce points out that an under-dosing with a weak serum that's not fresh will not have the kind of "kick" that helps to control cholera. Call in your veterinarian to vaccinate your hogs, and your county agent can give you information about proper amounts of serum to use on hogs of various weights and ages.

South America is the original home of potatoes and quinine, but today the center of potato culture is northern Europe and Indonesia has almost a monopoly on quinine production.

Okaloosa Home Club Has Meeting

Mrs. J. C. Tolbird, Sr., was hostess to the Okaloosa Home Demonstration Club at the April meeting with Mrs. Estelle Luttrell, president, presiding. The meeting opened with the song "Smiles" led by Mrs. M. D. Cannon. Members repeated the pledge to the flag led by Mrs. Samuel Crowell. Vice-President Mrs. N. L. Coon read a poem, "It's Up to You." Roll call and minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. M. D. Cannon. Reports were given by the following leaders: "Food Preparation," by Mrs. E. J. Hendricks; "Consumers' Education" by Mrs. Shirley Fowler; "Nutrition," by Mrs. F. J. Crowell; "Council Meeting" by Mrs. Estelle Luttrell.

Mrs. M. D. Cannon gave a helpful and interesting demonstration on "Trimming for Children's Clothing."

New York City Invites General

New York, April 15.—Gen. Douglas MacArthur was officially invited today to New York for one of the big city's traditional ticketape parades.

The ousted general is expected unofficially to fly here from the west coast on Wednesday.

Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri sent a cablegram to the general in Tokyo inviting him to "an official municipal welcome" here. He asked the general, removed from his Far East commands by President Truman, to advise him of his plans so the city could make appropriate arrangements.

REBEKAH CHIEF LODGE VISITOR

Mrs. Linnie Whitaker, To Make Official Inspection Here

Mrs. Linnie Whitaker, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Louisiana, Monroe woman, will make her first official visit to the local Rebekah lodge No. 66, April 16 at the Woodmen hall.

There will be a special program in her honor and guests are expected from Jonesboro and other lodges of the area. The president will outline her work for the coming year.

Mrs. Whitaker was born in Jacksonville, Tex., and has been a member of the Rebekahs for 25 years. She is a charter member of Monroe Rebekah lodge No. 66 and was secretary for nine years before she was elevated to the office of warden of the Rebekah Assembly of Louisiana in Baton Rouge in March of this year. She was elected president without opposition.

Mrs. Chelle Wilson, noble grand of the local lodge wants all members to attend and visiting Rebekahs are cordially invited. Refreshments will be served following the meeting which will open at 7:30 p.m.

Swartz Demonstration Club Has Meeting

Mrs. Lizzie Sullivan was hostess to the Swartz Home Demonstration Club at the April meeting, which was called to order by the president, Mrs. George Spier.

Following a song and roll call each member told of progress toward starting an outdoor living room.

Mrs. Audrey Dawson visited the club to make a state wide survey.

Reports were given by various leaders, Mrs. Spier and Mrs. Rogers showing different sewing stitches. A short recreation period was followed by serving of refreshments. Those attending were: Mrs. George Spier, Mrs. W. J. St. John, Mrs. A. R. Mears, Mrs. W. J. Roper, Mrs. Earl Takewell, Mrs. J. P. Staley, Mrs. H. M. Hudson, Mrs. Sam Hixon, Mrs. Ted Campbell, and Mrs. Lizzie Sullivan.

NPA OFFICER TO VISIT MONROE

Roy Saunders To Be Here To Aid Business Men With Explanations

The Chamber of Commerce has arranged for a representative of the National Production Authority to spend a day in Monroe interviewing businessmen who have problems with regulations and priorities on metals and other commodities covered by N. P. A. orders, it was announced by Ivy C. Jordan, Chamber president.

Roy D. Saunders, district manager of the Shreveport N. P. A. office, will be in Monroe Tuesday, April 17. He will be available for interviews, by appointment, from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. in the Chamber of Commerce offices in the Virginia Hotel building. Anyone needing assistance on problems dealing with construction, allocations of steel, iron, copper or aluminum, or any other commodities covered by priorities, can meet with Saunders for personal consultations. Anyone wishing to interview Mr. Saunders should call the Chamber office as early as possible for an appointment.

Jordan explained that the Chamber of Commerce is attempting to complete arrangements for a regular weekly visit by Saunders or some other N. P. A. representative for the benefit of local businessmen and others from the surrounding area. As soon as arrangements can be completed appropriate announcements will be made through the press and radio, Jordan added.

Deviled eggs are tops for an hors d'oeuvre, a salad and even an entree. Mash the egg y's and combine with chopped ripe olives and enough mayonnaise to moisten. Season with salt, pepper and prepared mustard to suit your own taste. If you're adventurous and like something a little different, add a bit of dill seed to the mixture too.

Now that we're getting into the tomato season again you'll want to try this favorite luncheon salad. Peel a tomato and cut into three slices. Put the slices back together again with a filling of pieces of ripe olives held together with mayonnaise, and seasoned to taste. Serve on a garnished salad plate with whole ripe olives alongside.

When you have leftover pastry after making pie, use it for Cheese Straws.

'Forgotten Quarter Million' Mental Patients One Thought Beyond Treatment Find Hope In New Experiment

The other 200 patients, the so-called "control group," were scattered about the other hospital wards, receiving only the usual type of institutional care for their type of case. These usual treatments consisted of feeding them and attending to any physical ailments, but making no determined effort to cure the mental illness which resulted in their commitment.

STARTS THURSDAY AT THE JOY

'Up Front' At Joy On Thursday

Film stars get the oddest requests.

For instance, take the case of David Wayne and Tom Ewell, stars of Bill Mauldin's "Up Front," a Universal-International comedy release, opening Thursday at the Joy Theatre.

A young lady fan, writing from Flint, Mich., told the actors that she understood they had grown their own beards in order to perform the roles of Bill Mauldin's famous characters, Willie and Joe. Also the young lady pointed out, she understood that in the closing sequences of the comedy they shaved and then continued their performances with clean faces. The young lady was placing a request for the shavings.

The request was granted with both Wayne and Ewell rinsing and wrapping their facial foliage in cellophane and mailing it to their fan.

That situation recalled similar requests for mementoes, received by stars from their fans through the years.

There was the gent in St. Tammany, Louisiana, who demanded the mermaid tail worn by Ann Blyth in "Mr. Peabody and the Mermaid." A plumber in Oklahechoe, Florida, asked Universal-International for an ancient bathtub in which Yvonne De Carlo bathed in one of her recent Technicolor spectacles.

OPENS AT PARAMOUNT

'To the victor belongs the spoils, and to Dan Dailey belongs Betty Grable's heart. The romantic young couple share top honors in Twentieth Century-Fox's song, dance, romance and Technicolor studded production, "Call Me Mister," opening a four-day run today at the Paramount Theatre. Directed by Lloyd Bacon and produced by Fred Kohlmar, the film features laugh provoker Danny Thomas.

'Call Me Mister,' Smash Hit Of Broadway, Opening At Paramount

New Technicolor Film Features Betty Grable, Dan Dailey

A smash Broadway stage revue has even magnified its greatness on the screen. "Call Me Mister," the Paramount Theatre's new Technicolor treat, is colorful and gay, zesty and spirited, and heart warming entertainment besides. Its verve and vitality are infectious, its stars Betty Grable and Dan Dailey are charming, and its Technicolored musical and comedy numbers simply hilarious.

An abundance of talent, superb material and crack pace have combined to effect a wonderfully funny, irresistibly engaging show.

Where the stage "Call Me Mister" was only a collection of assorted songs and skits, the film has strung some of its sock episodes plus a batch of first-rate new items on a credible and amusing romantic story line, and set this against an authentic background of occupation forces in present-day Japan. Dan plays a genial GI gigolo, who gets off the track and is finally set straight by his reunion with Betty. The stars, who have paired happily in the past, are even more agreeable together this time than they have been previously. Without doubt they rank as the outstanding screen team of the day.

Though the film injects a story line on "Call Me Mister," it doesn't neglect the prime purposes of the show, its wonderful assortment of musical comedy numbers. High on the favored list is a new Mack Gordon-Sammy Fain tune, "I Just Can't Do Enough For You Baby," and close behind a revival of "I'm Gonna Love That Guy" (Like He's Never Been Loved Before), the Frances Ash tune which takes on new nostalgic flavor in view of happenings in the world today. From the original "Call Me Mister" are Harold J. Rome's memorable title song, "Going Home Train" and the Air Force sketch, "Military Life."

It is in the last, as well as in some other special material by Jerry Seelen and Earl K. Brent, that Danny Thomas gets to shine as he never has before in the movies. The television and night club comic has no peer when it comes to these droll comedy skits or special lyrics monologues. He is triumphant in "Call Me Mister." Another invaluable aid to the film is musical comedy star Benay Venuta, who whams across a song or a joke in nimble fashion. Also featured to advantage are Dale Robertson, Richard Boone, Jeffrey Hunter and the riotously funny vaudeville and comedian Frank Fontaine.

Lloyd Bacon directed the film for Producer Fred Kohlmar. The production mountings are properly elaborate and attractive, with dances neatly staged by Busby Berkeley, who had a hand in the discovery of Miss Betty Grable years ago. Mr. Bacon's firm hand has kept the spirit of the show, which is heartening and lively, the prime force. With solid casting and creating at every turn, the result is an entertainment bonanza that lives up to the name and tradition of "Call Me Mister."

'Jungle Jim' Is Starred In Film

All the jungle wile and cunning of Jungle Jim, as portrayed again by Johnny Weissmuller, are called into play by the action star as he combats enemy agents for top-secret supplies. Johnny faces the greatest adventure of his thrill-packed career in "Pygmy Island," a Columbia Pictures' jungle drama which opens for three days Thursday at the Paramount Theatre.

Weissmuller joins a searching party, sent from Washington, on a two-fold mission deep in his jungle preserve. First, is the task of finding a lost WAC captain who disappeared while searching for a valuable jungle fiber necessary to America's defense. Second, is the finding of the fiber itself.

"Pygmy Island" is replete with animal savagery as well as with enemy treachery. Weissmuller, besides battling his human foes, has to fight the denizens of the jungle as well.

Ann Savage gives a convincing portrait of the dauntless, and pretty, WAC officer.

'At War With Army'

PLAYING AT JOY TODAY

ahiti offers the tropical setting for the romance between Esther Williams and Howard ("Annie Get Your Gun") Keel in M-G-M's new Technicolor musical, "Pagan Love Song," now showing at the Joy Theatre. Harry Warren and Arthur Freed wrote the flock of song hits for the new picture, which was filmed on location on the Pacific island of Kauai.

'Pagan Love Song' Pairs Esther Williams, Howard Keel In Hit

Technicolor Romance Of South Seas Now Showing At The Joy

The sight of comely Esther Williams clad in a pareu (Tahitian version of a sarong), swimming against the Technicolor backgrounds of a lush tropical isle, alone is worth the price of admission to "Pagan Love Song," M-G-M's latest musical romance, now at the Joy Theatre. Add to that the singing prowess of Howard Keel, who made an auspicious film debut as the hero of "Annie Get Your Gun," and who now lends his fresh personality and fine singing voice to a hit parade of new songs by Harry Warren and Arthur Freed, and you have an idea of the entertainment delights of this diverting new tuner.

Miss Williams has one of her most appealing and eye-filling roles as Mimi Bennett, a part-Polynesian girl who has spent her life in Tahiti and who enlivens her life by shifting from the attitude of a typical smart and sophisticated American girl to that of the pared-adorned, sun-exposed native maiden. It is in her latter role that she meets the naive and gullible Ohio school teacher Hap Endicott (Howard Keel), who has come to Tahiti to claim his inherited plantation and who mistakes Mimi for a native domestic. The confusion laughs and romantic contretemps which arise from this comedy of errors provide an amusing framework for the musical interludes, the delightful native dancing sequences and the arresting swimming scenes set against glowingly beautiful settings of lagoons, natural pools and other scenic delights of the tropics.

The musical score of "Pagan Love Song" is one of the finest to emanate from a Hollywood musical in some time, with Keel at his best in such numbers as "The House of Singing Bamboo," "Why Is Love So Crazy," "Etiquette," and the picture's title song. Miss Williams joins him in "Singing in the Sun" and has a solo number in the lovely "Sea of the Moon."

The stars are given admirable support by Minna Gombell, cast as Aunt Kate; Rita Moreno, remembered as the Cajun dancer in "The Toast of New Orleans," and now playing a Tahitian charmer; and a group of supporting players largely made up of native islanders selected on location.

DeMolay Degrees To Be Conferred

The regular meeting of the Ouachita chapter No. 204, Order of DeMolay, will be held Wednesday evening, April 18, at the West Monroe Masonic Temple. Both the Initiatory and DeMolay degrees will be conferred on candidates at that time.

R. M. Kettenring, staff director of the chapter, has been working with the degree teams for some time and promises an efficient presentation of both degrees. All master Mason in the twin cities and vicinity are invited to be present to witness the splendid work these young boys are performing. The chapter has recently acquired an entire set of new robes and insignia and the boys are especially anxious to show them off to any visitors who might attend the meeting.

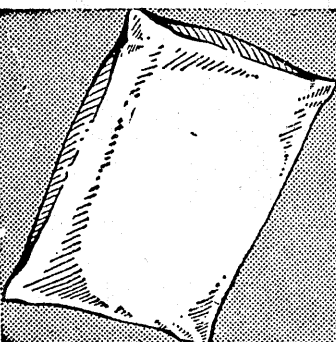

The officers of Ouachita chapter wish also to call attention to the fact that all boys between the ages of 14 and 21 years are eligible to become members of the DeMolay organization if properly recommended.

A pair of beef sweetbreads usually weigh from three-quarters to one - and - one - half pounds; veal sweetbreads usually weigh from one half to one-and-one-quarter pounds. A pound of sweetbreads will make four to six servings.

DAGWOOD, WILL YOU REMEMBER TO PUT THE LEG OF LAMB IN THE OVEN IN A HALF HOUR?

DON'T WORRY-- I WON'T FORGET IT

OH, DEAR-- I'M WORRIED

Z-Z

RING

WHAT'S THAT?

COULD YOU SPARE A HUNGRY MAN A DIME FOR A CUP OF COFFEE?

I'LL DO BETTER THAN THAT-- COME IN

IF YOU HADN'T AWAKENED ME, I WOULD'VE FORGOTTEN THE ROAST-- HERE'S A WHOLE DOLLAR

GREAT SCOTT! THE ROAST IS GONE-- THAT TRAMP MUST'VE SWIPED IT-- THE INGRATE!

GIVE ME ANOTHER LEG OF LAMB-- JUST LIKE THE ONE MY WIFE BOUGHT THIS MORNING

THAT WAS VERY EXPENSIVE

THERE'S STILL TIME TO ROAST IT BEFORE BLONDIE GETS HOME-- SHE MUST NEVER FIND OUT ABOUT THIS

THE LAMB WILL BE PERFECT-- I'VE BASTED IT A HUNDRED TIMES

RING

THERE'S BLONDIE-- I'LL CARRY THIS TO THE DOOR AND SURPRISE HER WITH IT

I WAS AFRAID YOU'D FORGET IT, SO I TOOK IT NEXT DOOR TO MRS. WOODLEY AND HAD HER ROAST IT IN HER OVEN

IF TWO WOMEN ARE GOING TO FIGHT OVER ME, I THINK I'D RATHER BE ON THE GROUND

ALL I ASKED FREDDIE TO DO WAS TO CARRY OUT A FEW RUGS-- AND HE'S COME LIKE A FLASH

WE OUGHT TO JUST LET THE HOUSES GET DIRTY AND SHAPE THE MEN!

I DON'T THINK ANYTHING WOULD SHAPE MY WALTON

WE'RE PRIVATE EYES, BUT WE DON'T TELL ALL WE SEE

WE WORK FOR THE HIGHEST BIDDER

IF ALICE IS GOING TO WALK OUT ON ME, I THINK I'LL MOVE DOWN TO THE CLUB

NOW YOU'RE TALKING SENSE!

COME ON! LET'S ALL GET IN THE CAR AND MAKE A BREAK FOR IT

I DON'T THINK OLD FREDDIE IS GOING TO MAKE IT

AND THAT DON'T LEAVE ANYBODY TO GIVE ME STROKES

YOU'D BETTER STOP THINKING ABOUT LILLIAN OR SHE'LL HAVE YOU WAXING ALL THE FLOORS IN HER KENNEL

MRS. SWALTZ CAUGHT ARNOLD

GOSH! AND HE WAS MY MEAT

HERE, ARNOLD! PUT THESE IN THAT BAG, AND YOU CAN CADDIE FOR ME!

YOU DON'T NEED TO HOLD THIS LADDER, CORA. I'LL TAKE CARE OF SLUG!

THAT'S NOT WHAT HE TOLD ME AT THE MOVIE LAST NIGHT

AND I THOUGHT I WAS CATTY

I DON'T KNOW WHERE ALL THE DUST COMES FROM, BUT WHEN I RUN MY FINGER OVER THE PIANO--

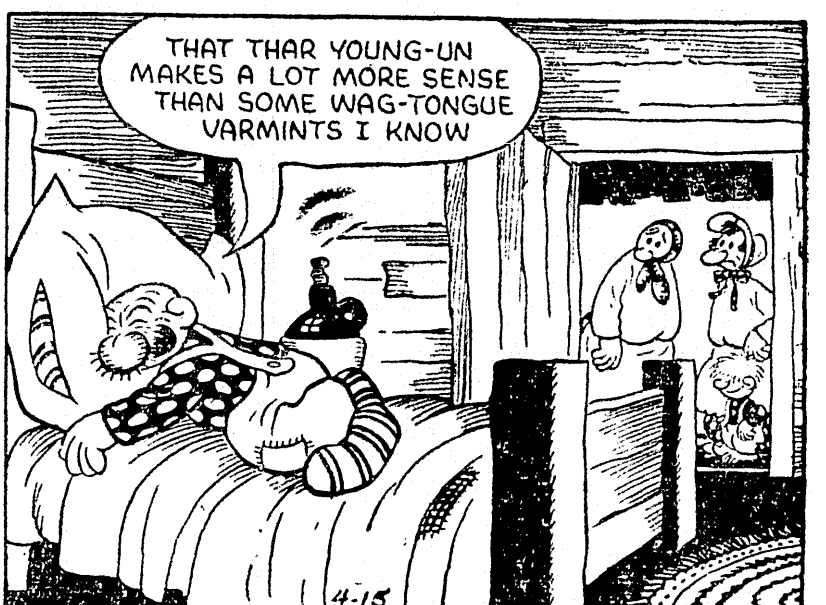

IT WOULD HELP A LOT IF I COULD TEACH GEORGE TO USE AN ASH TRAY

IF I COULD GET FRANK TO LOOK OVER HIS NECKTIES, I COULD DO ALL THE REST

DRAGGED HIM TO SAFETY.

JACK, HOT ROD, FIND THE WOODS AND STUNT A RABBIT OR SOMETHING—I'M SHAKING.

I'M FREEZIN'—AND I CAN'T WALK—BOTH MY ANKLES ARE SPRAINED AND TH' PAIN IS KILLIN' ME!

I CAN'T WALK, EITHER WHEN THE SHACK CAIED IN, I INVESTED AN KNEE

I MUST'VE TORN ALL THE SASSMENTS, PAN, TOO - EEW!!

LATER, NOT AGOOD DRINKS HIMSELF TO THE PLANE WHICH WAS OVER BY THE STORM

MUSIC ENOUGH WORKED.

HEY!

AM, THAT ROCK GOT HIM.

DANN ARRIVED,

SALOMEY is the first pig to have fallen into the hands of the impoverished royalty of Bukomburg since the good old days. The ruler—Schultz the Magnificent—has summoned all his Royal relatives for a Grand Pig Hunt—while the yokums are helpless in the dungeons below....

DOT VASS DER LAST PIG VE HUNTED IN 1914. DOT HUNT VASNT ALL ONE-SIDED! WE GOT HIM—BUT HE GOT DEAR OLD UNCLE OLAF DER UNLUCKY.

HE STILL GOT A PIECE OF UNCLE OLAF—IN HIS TEETH!!

?? IS DOT LITTLE PIG ALL VE HUNT? SIGH... H-H-H IS NOT LIKE DER GOODT OLDT DAYS!!

YOU SAD IT—BUT A PIG IS A PIG!! ONCE AGAIN I WILL PLUNCH THE HUNTING SPEAR INTO A PIG'S HEART!! AH-H!!—IT'LL WARM UP MY OLDT BLOOD!!

WHUT'S THET SCREAM WE HEARS?

THEY HAF TURNED IT VEEPS AS IT RUNS FOR ITS LIFE!!

IF WHUT'S DER HUNTING DOGS?? THEY ARE WILD MIT STARWATION!! THEIR FANGS ARE BARED—THEIR EYES ARE RED!!

BUGLE MOOSIC!! IS THET TH' U.S. CAVALRY?

CHUCKLE!—NOT!!—IT'S DER SIGNAL FOR DER ROYALTY TO MOUNT THEIR HORSES!!

WHUT'S THET CREAKIN'?

IT'S DER BONES OF DER ROYALTY AS THEY MOUNT THEIR HORSES!!

SALOMEY'S LITTLE HEART IS STOUT—BUT HER STAMINA FINALLY GIVES OUT!!

YOWL!! YAP! WO!!

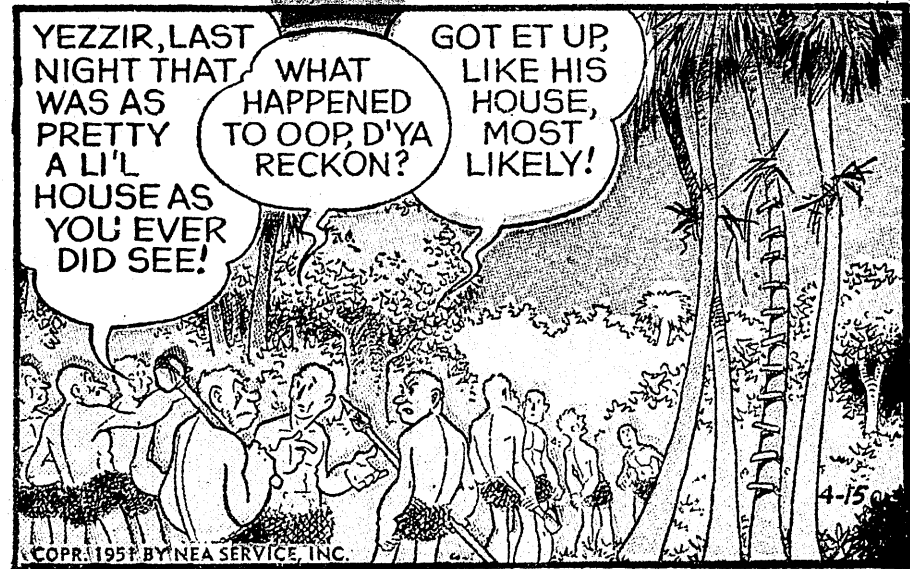

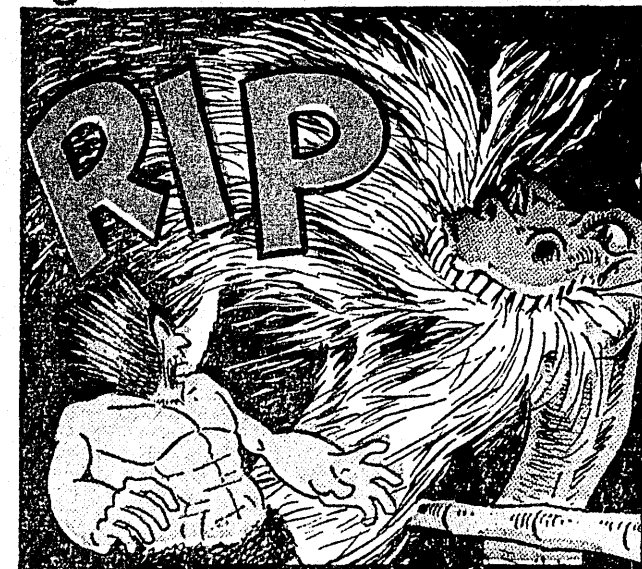

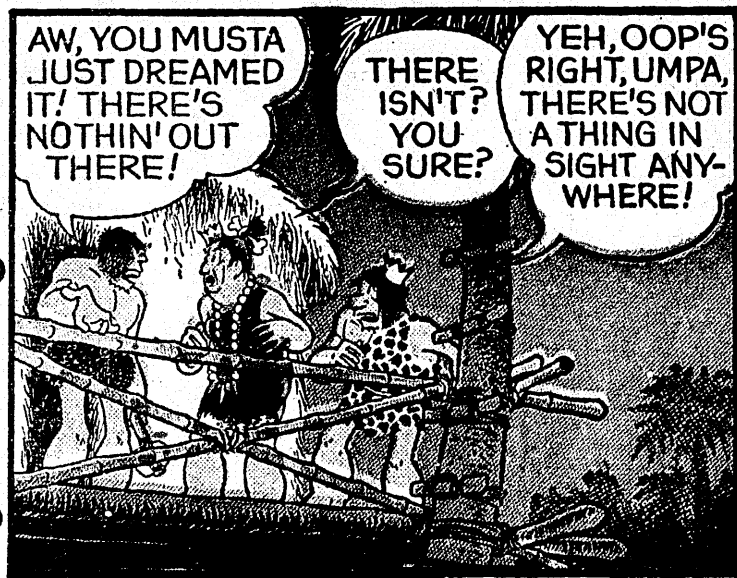

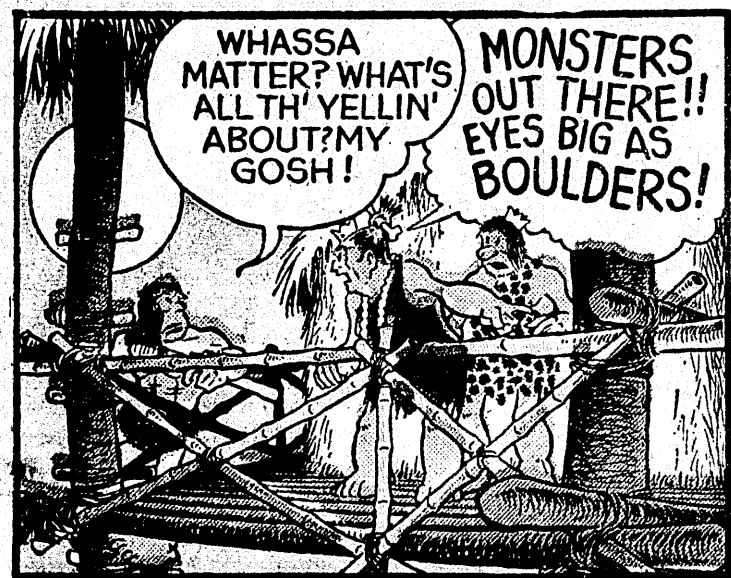

STANDT BACK!!—DER HONOR OF DER DEATH-BLOW BELONGS TO OUR MERCIFUL RULER, SCHULTZ THE MAGNIFICENT!!

FLASH'S ROCKET COASTS TAIL FIRST AS IT "FALLS" TOWARD THE MOON. SUDDENLY IT IS BRUSHED BY A METEOR--ONE OF THE FLAMING FRAGMENTS WHICH HAVE BEEN HURLING TO THE EARTH AT DAILY INTERVALS FROM DEEP INSIDE A MOON CRATER.

"THAT CRATER IS OUR TARGET," FLASH SAYS. "FASTEN STRAPS FOR LANDING." HE FIRES THE BRAKE ROCKETS TO KILL THEIR SPEED BEFORE TOUCHING THE MOON'S ROCKY, AIRLESS SURFACE.

ENCOUNTERING ONLY SLIGHT GRAVITY FORCE, THEY BOUND ACROSS THE CRATER'S PUMICE FLOOR. "ATOMIC BLASTS BELOW THE MOON'S CRUST MUST BE SHOOTING OUT THE METEORS," BRITE PHOINES. "NOTHING CAN LIVE HERE, WITH BURNING DAYS, FREEZING NIGHTS, NO AIR OR WATER."

The Manleys "Move Out" with the United States Army!

ARMY VETERAN CHARLIE MANLEY, RADIO REPAIR MAN, VISITS WITH HIS BOSS...

WHAT'S THIS I HEAR ABOUT YOU GOING BACK INTO THE ARMY, CHARLIE?

THE ARMY NEEDS EXPERIENCED RADIO TECHNICIANS, MR. DEY. I THINK IT'S MY OPPORTUNITY.

SORRY TO LOSE YOU, CHARLIE... BUT THEY NEED GOOD COMMUNICATIONS MEN LIKE YOU.

BIG THINGS ARE HAPPENING IN THE ARMY TODAY! MY KID BROTHER IS JOINING UP TOO!

THAT'S RIGHT, MR. DEY! AND I'M GOING TO TRY FOR THE ARMY'S COMMUNICATIONS SCHOOL!

SIT DOWN AND TELL ME ABOUT IT!

UNDER THE HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE PROGRAM, I CAN TAKE MY BASIC TRAINING... AND APPLY FOR TECHNICAL SCHOOL. IF I MAKE THE QUOTA, I CAN LEARN RADIO WHILE I'M SERVING!

I DON'T BLAME YOU FOR WANTING TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THAT.

A FEW WEEKS LATER

HE'LL MAKE A REAL SOLDIER!

GET THAT GOOD TRAINING, JIM... AND MAKE THAT COMMUNICATIONS SCHOOL. IT'S WORTH WORKING FOR!

OKAY, SERGEANT! NEXT TIME WE MEET I MAY RANK YOU!
